THIS COMPILATION IS LOVINGLY DEDICATED

To My Father

Robert Pickett Hamer, Jr.
1863-1912

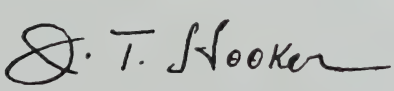
Who inspired an interest to collect and preserve in permanent form our family genealogy.
Around his beginning has grown this compilation.
To him the nucleus is due.

and

To My Husband



Jacob Thomas Hooker
1884-1948

Who was of invaluable service in research and collecting data — a source of guidance, inspiration and encouragement.
To him the completion is due.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It was because of my love for the family that this work has been done. It has led me into pleasant associations with unknown and known relatives and others, which I cherish deeply.

I wish to express profound gratitude and sincere appreciation to all who did research in the collection of data for this compilation, which will be of inestimable value and help not only to the present and future generations but to any who should desire to make further study on the Hamers. Without their interest and endeavors this work would not have been possible.

The assistance of some has been far reaching, even beyond their section, and consequently they should be considered as joint collaborators. To others who aided in their sections and immediate families, I wish to thank and give to them credit for their contributions. I want those who have assisted in any way, no matter how little, to feel that they had a part in the compilation.

I would like to render acknowledgments of the valuable data secured from the following books:

Kinfolks by Gen. William Curry Harllee.

It contains many of the families listed herein and reference to it is frequently made. Gen. Harllee was a source of encouragement to me in the undertaking of this research; always willing to donate of his store of information and urge me onward.

History of Old Cheraws by the Rev. A. Gregg

Sketches of Old Marlboro by D. D. McColl

History of Marlboro County by the Rev. J. A. W. Thomas

History of Marion County by W. W. Sellers

Robesonian McCallums by Farrell and Hooker

Every effort has been put forth to have this record accurate and complete. However, it is realized that it is incomplete and perhaps a few errors have crept in; and if so, my most sincere apologies are offered. Unfortunately some data arrived too late to be included.

It is my desire that everyone who reads this compilation will receive from it an interest in our ancestors and will live up to our Heritage.

GENEALOGICAL INDEX 326

INTRODUCTION

HE PURPOSE of this particle record of the name we bear is to preserve for future generations, as well as a reminder to those now living, that ours is a rich heritage. The virtues and achievements of our remote and immediate ancestors stand out as a record of priceless value and an inspiration to right living and noble endeavor. It is unfortunate that heretofore there has been no written record. This makes it difficult to establish branches and relationships between branches and the main trunk of the family tree. Be that as it may, there is sufficient information available in this book to provide a beginning for future genealogists in the family to build a more noble work in veneration of the past and to provide by retrospect a large prospect for the future. May our family flourish as the green bay tree, and the name we bear be kept unblemished in the generations to come.

THE HERITAGE

Hold me not boastful that I take pride
In what my forefathers have achieved;
I honor not myself, but them, who gave
A priceless heritage on which to build.
Not selfishness, for they knew sacrifice;
Not cowardice, but courage for the fight;
Not boldness, but a quiet dignity;
Not false pride, but a love of high ideals;
And reverence for things to be revered.
Heir to these qualities, so may I prove
More worthy of the blood that flows in me,
The great foundations of my life today,
Which, by the toil of patriots has been formed.

ABBREVIATIONS and SYMBOLS

A star "*" in front of a number given to a child indicates that fuller details for the child will be found under that number. The suffix "Jr." is not used in listing the children. The name of a state is not always repeated in the same register when the location is in the same state.

SONS have been given numerals; i.e. 1,2,3,4, etc. DAUGHTERS have been given letters; i.e. a,b,c,d, etc. HUSBANDS and WIVES have been given the number assigned the descendant followed by H or W as the case may be; i.e. J. T. Hooker—121531cH; Sarah Cheairs—1212W, she the wife of Thomas Hamer—1212.

Numerous ways have been used to designate descendants. There are easier ones than the way I have used, but this way never closes the line. Additions can always be made; and the descendants will have his, or her, number.

JOHN HAMER of North Carolina; I have given number 1 to represent the 1st generation and 1st son. (I do not know John to be the 1st son but know of no others—F.H.H.).

WILLIAM HAMER; 12, the 2nd son of John Hamer and 2nd generation.

JOHN HICKS HAMER; 121, the 1st son of William and the 3rd generation.

THOMAS HAMER; 1212, the 2nd son of John Hicks and the 4th generation.

4th son —4th generation —R. C. Hamer
1st son —3rd generation —John Hicks (Hix)
2nd son—2nd generation—William Hamer
1st son —1st generation —John Hamer

The first four numbers or letters is the Symbol; i.e. 1212—1213—1215—121b—121c—121d—etc.

To each child of John Hicks Hamer, I have given a Chapter. The Symbol is the Key; i.e. 1212—Chapter 2, 2nd child; 121a—Chapter 4, 4th child. The Chapters I have divided into Sections for each child. All descendants carry their ancestor's Symbol; i.e. 12177a will be found in the Chapter with 1217 as the Key Number and Chapter 10, the 10th child. 12191bae1 will be found under 1219 as Key, Chapter 15, the 15th child.

HAMERS

HAMER FAMILY

Name of Anglo-Saxon or Norse Derivation—Captain Ralph (Hamor), a Jamestown Settler — He was one of the King's Council — His "True Discourse" — An Almost Priceless Book — Military Career of Family a Noble One—Heraldic Emblems Symbolize Loyalty, Integrity, Deathless Courage.

(By Elearnor Lexington)

Variations of this name are Hamer, Haymer, Hanmer, Hamerton, Hamerling and Hamersley.

The derivation may be from the Anglo-Saxon word ham, meaning home, which forms part of many old names of localities. One variation of ham is hama.

The old German for home is Hame; Heim is modern German. Haim is an old French word meaning the same thing. Haimes is Gothic. A name found in seventh century records was Haimo, also spelled Aymo. In the eleventh century we find in England the name Haymes, from which Aymes and Ames are derived.

Heimard and Aimard are also found in old records as family names. Through a process of evolution, Hamer may be derived from these names, and, in the first place, from the Anglo-Saxon ham. Another theory advanced by authorities, is that hari is the root. This is a Norse word, meaning hero, and from which came Heimir, a family name of centuries ago. Hamer is not impossible from Heimir. Homer and Omer are derived from the root Nari a hero, a warrior.

If Hamer is a shorthand form of Hanmer, the family may, perhaps, claim connection with Sir John de Hanmer, or Hammere, constable of Carnarvon Castle, time Edward I. An historian born in Shropshire, 1543, was Meredith Hanmer.

The first of the name in this country was Capt. Ralph Hamer, also spelled Hamor. He came from London with Lord De Warrin 1610, and was one of the "Knights and gentlemen of quality," who arrived at that time, to become one of the founders of Jamestown, Va. and was appointed clerk of the council, afterwards a member of the King's Council, and secretary of the colony.

From records of the time, the following is an extract: "While up the Pamaunkie (York) River, March 1, 1614, parleying with the Indians, Capt. Ralph Hamer made known to Governor Sir Thomas Dale, the love which had long existed between his friend John Rolfe and Pocahontas, by giving to Sir Thomas, a letter from Rolfe explaining the situation. Rolfe labored so effectually for the conversion of the tender-hearted heathen that she not only embraced Christianity, but took Rolfe for a husband besides." The marriage took place April 15, 1614. When Rolfe returned to Jamestown with his bride, the red cross of St. George was flying from the masthead of the ship. There was a fanfan of trumpets and drums and joyous booming of guns.

This is told in Capt. Hamer's "True Discourse of the Present Estate of Virginia," a book which is one of the most valuable contributions to the data of the times. It is dedicated to Sir Thomas Smith. In the book is an inscription, "written by a gentlemen of good merit," also the legend, "Alget qui non Ardet," which was perhaps, the motto of the author, who wrote his name Ralph, and Raphe, as well as Ralphe.

About the important subject—clothes, Ralph thus discourses: "As long as there are wild beast, and they have skins on their backs, why should we not clothe ourselves therewith? It is no worse than our forefathers have worn before us."

When the Captain went to visit Powhatan, he took a "wooden comb, ten fish hooks and a pair of knives," to propitiate the red man. "He put his arms about my neck," wrote Capt. Hamer, "as though he would like to have cut it, but he durst not."

This book, published in 1614, is now one of the rare volumes of the world. A copy, found about fifty years ago in London, is in possession of the Virginia Historical Society. A reprint of 200 copies was made in Albany, N. Y.

Capt. Hamer returned to England for one purpose, to get his book published and to marry a wife—the widow Clement, who returned to Virginia with him bringing her two children, Jeremy and Elizabeth. The Captain was now vice-admiral. His father, Ralph, Sr., and brother Thomas returned with him to the colony. Bermuda Hundred was one of the Hamer homes where the family had an extensive estate.

Ralph, the elder, had been a director of the East Indian Company and had about 1600 pounds sterling invested in it. He died soon after reaching Virginia, leaving a widow, Susan.

A pilgrim from Wales, James Hamer, settled in Montgomery County, Pa. in 1712, where he acquired about 300 acres in the manor of Gilbert from Wm. Penn. The name James has been continued in a direct line down to the present day. Members of this family, through a marriage connection, trace back to Cotton Mather.

Another immigrant was the Thomas Hamer, who is supposed to have settled in Chester or Northumberland County, Pa. and to have come from the North of England, or probably Scotland. He served in the Revolution, and his son James was in the war of 1812. The representative of this family in the Mexican war was Brig. Gen. Thomas Lyon Hamer. He lost his life on the battlefield. He had been a member of Congress, and it was to him (General Ulysses) Grant owed his appointment to West Point. His gallantry and heroism on the battlefield was recognized by Congress, and a sword* given in his memory to his nearest male relative.

The military service of the Hamers has been a long and distinguished one and every war, down to the Spanish-American, has had its representative.

Colonial war records give us the name of George Hamer, member of the Virginia militia, from Augusta County, 1758. If he fails you as an ancestor, there are valuable marriage connections; for one with the Robinsons, descendants of John Robinson, who held such a prominent position in Virginia, and who is the most valuable kind of an ancestor to annex, if it is membership with colonial societies that is desired. Among other marriage connections may be mentioned the Kings, Seiberts, Lyons, Johnsons and Holbrooks.

The arms blazoned in Barke's "Peerage" for the Hamer family, is gules, a cocke or Crest, on a chapeau azure, turned up ermine, a lion's head, argent, languid gules.

This coat-armor symbolizes integrity, deathless courage, magnanimity and loyalty.*

EARLY HISTORY OF THE EASTERN SHORE OF VIRGINIA

"To Charles Harmar, 105 Acres for Transportation of 19 Servants by Governor West, July 1635." This Charles married Elizabeth Hicks and their son William Hicks Hamer married Amy Vicks Robinson. A daughter of this union, Emily Vicks, married Henry Clay Holbrook, of Atlanta, Ga. (My father, R.P.H.Jr., carried on quite a correspondence with her. F.H.H.).

SOME EMIGRANTS TO VIRGINIA

A letter from the Virginia State Librarian gives this data. The Book, "True Discourse of the Present Estate of Virginia written by Sir Ralph Hamor, the younger, late Secretary in the Colony, and dedicated to Sir Thomas Smith is one of only three copies of this first edition in America; one in the John Carter Brown Library, another in the Boston Library and the third in the New York Public Library. This book had a reprint in 1860, and of the reprint, a copy is in the Virginia State Library. It gives an account of Virginia Colony to June 18, 1614. (See Letter Section).

PENNSYLVANIA HAMERS

James Henry Hamer III was born October 1847 in Skippacheville, Pa., and he married May 1879 to Flora Hunsicker. There were four children. He received his medical degree and taught Chemistry in Haknemann Medical College. His father, James Henry Hamer II, received his medical degree from the University of New York Class of 1844. James Henry Hamer I, grandfather of James Henry Hamer III, received his medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

Another Hamer of renown who was born in Pennsylvania in 1800, was Thomas Lyon. His father was a poor farmer and lived near Lake Champlain. Thomas L. spent many of his boyhood days watching the ships on the lake. He saw the Naval fight between McDough and Capt. Downe.

*The above was copied from a piece written for The Columbia State (1907). It was cut out by Robert Pickett Hamer, Jr. and given to his daughter Flora Janie Hamer before he died in 1912.

About 1817, his family moved to Ohio and there he taught school and studied law at the same time. He began his profession in 1821 and soon was elected to the State Legislature for several terms and served as speaker of the house for one term. Not only was he a statesman but a famous soldier. A sword was given in his memory, which remained in the hands of his widow until her death, then his grandson Thomas Hamer Johnson fell heir to it, he being the nearest male relative. He had no issue, so the sword was left under the care of his Aunt Mrs. Louden, who retained the sword. (See Letter Section).

Thomas Hamer Johnston, born 1846, married Carolina Dorsey. He was the son of Malvina Hamer, born 1826, and Judge Sanders Walker Johnston of Kentucky, a grandson of Gen. Thomas L. Hamer and his first wife, Lydia Bruce Higgins. These Pioneers made settlements in many states. The first of the name in the Carolinas was John Hamer who came to Anson County, North Carolina, about 1744. Very probably he and his family came from Maryland.

ABRAHAM HAMMER

See "AMERICAN QUAKER GENEALOGY"—N. C. Records page 393; "Abraham Hammer received on certificate, 1860,6,7, in Orange County (now Alamance County), N. C." page 467; "HAMMER, ABRAHAM (son of Abraham and Rachel) born 1-5-1771. Eight Children listed —one of whom was John, b 4-13-1814, of Randolph County N. C.— (Not our John—B.G.H.) (John Hamer of Anson County antidates this John Hamer of Randolph County; therefore, the latter is not our John Hamer.—B.G.H.).

BALTIMORE HAMERS*

Richard Hamer came from England in 1819, and his son William was born on the boat on the way over. William had one older brother, Richard, and two younger sisters. One sister married John Hamer, her first cousin. (Don't know who John was except he was English—R.P.H.). The other sister married Ezra Daisy.

Richard Hamer had 3 children; Dannie and Richard, a baby died—two boys and one daughter.

Dannie married and had 3 boys; William, John and Thomas. Of these, the two oldest now live in Wilmington, Del.; the youngest is dead.

Richard's daughter married Dr. M. S. Taylor, a dentist in Baltimore, Md., and they had two children; both dead.

William Hamer, Richard's brother, married Miss Justice of Richmond, Va. and they had no children. They lived in Baltimore, Md.

Gen. William Salley Hamer, who was born near Nashville, Tennessee.

*(This data was secured by R. P. Hamer, Jr. on one of his visits to Baltimore. It was found among his papers. The data was secured before 1912—F.H.H.).

Baltimore, June 1, 1881

The business of the late William H. Hamer will be continued at the same place as heretofore, No. 115 Lexington St., Cor. Park Ave.

Retaining the same foreman and all the old workmen, the business will be carried on in the same manner and style as formerly. And no immediate change of any kind will be made in the general conduct of the business.

Customers may rely upon having orders filled with promptness and care, and in the same first-class manner for which the deceased was noted, both in regard to material and workmanship.

Respectfully,
E. R. Hamer

MARLBORO HAMERS

Copy of Records from Ledger kept by Rev. Lewis Myers Hamer—1219. The ledger is owned by his great-grandson, Frank B. David, of Dillon, South Carolina.

It will be observed that in recording these marriages the dates are not in regular succession. This is owing to the fact that I had them in different memorandum books and had to hunt them up and record them as I could find them.

FAMILY RECORD

Our family record is contained in three different Bibles. These Bibles are getting old, some of them are already mutilated and in order that they be preserved as a matter of history for future generations, I have concluded to copy them all in this book, hoping they may by this means be preserved.

I consider it a duty incumbent upon us, to preserve, as far as we are able, a correct family record. We may not have billions, deeds placed to our credit in these records, our names may not be immortalized as heroes, but our descendants who may be immediately interested may want to know some of the facts connected with our history, and may not be able to come into possession of them unless they are carefully preserved.

ON THE FLY LEAF IN THE BACK PART OF MY FATHER'S BIBLE I FIND

A brief record of the names and births of the most of those who were his servants during his life time. They were all good and obedient servants and never gave him any trouble at all. And I consider it due them to preserve this record.

My father had in his possession two servants that were native born Africans, Jack and Jimmey. How he came in possession of them I am not prepared to say, whether by purchase or by inheritance, but I am disposed to think he inherited them. Among my earliest recollections of them they were old people. They lived to be very old. The woman, Jimmey, was thought to be near a hundred years old. They could converse in the African language. They were industrious as long as they lived. They had two children of whom I recollect, they perhaps had others. The two were Jimmey and Jack.

Jimmey had a husband a negro man named Charles Vining
Jimmey was born April 30th 1792
Jack was born December 24th 1793

Children of Jimmey:
George was born May 10th 1808
Mastin was born October 18th 1810
Thomas was born February 17th 1812
Phebe was born December 31st 1813

Jack had a wife name Bettie who belonged to (Sadler) James Smith, hence there is no record of his children.

George, son of Jimmey had a wife named Judy who belonged to Mr. John Murdock hence no record of his children.

Mastin, son of Jimmey, had a wife named Rose who belonged to Mr. Aaron Breedin hence there is no record of his children.

Thomas, daughter of Jimmey had as a husband Dick who also belonged to my father.

They had the following children:
Dublin born October 29th 1828
Harriet born November 12th 1832
Aaron was born July 29th 1835
Martha was born April 23rd 1838
Dick the father of the above children was born October 25th 1805

Phebe had a husband named Garrot who belonged to Mr. Aaron Breedin.

They had the following children:
Flora was born October 6th 1833
Clara was born September 13th 1835
Charles was born June 3rd 1837

My father also owned a woman named Mary, who was given to my mother by her father, Nathan Thomas Sr. Mary had as a husband a man named Jo, who belonged to Eli Thomas. Jo and Mary had the following children:
Clara was born August 26th 1822
Caroline was born May 6th 1824
Andrew was born April 2nd 1826
Rachel was born April 27th 1828
Weston was born September 22nd 1830
Fannie was born August 9th 1833
Peter was born February 13th 1836
Jo was born March 4th 1838

Birth of some of the servants owned by P. S. Thomas:

Hardy McRae was born June 11th 1818

Jerry and James twins, sons of Hardy and Eliza were born November 11th 1850.

SOME ITEMS IN THE HISTORY OF THE HAMER FAMILY

William Hamer, father of John H. Hamer, came from the State of Maryland and settled in Anson County, North Carolina. I am not able to say with any degree of certainty who he married, but I infer his wife's name was Rachel (Frances—F.H.H.) Hicks. I base this inference on the following fact: My father had "H" as the middle letter of his name and it was known that the "H" was for Hicks.

William Hamer, according to tradition in our family, was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. They, that is William Hamer and his wife, had three daughters of whom I have learned. 1, Sarah married Elijah Curtis. 2, Frances married to James Ratcliff. 3, and one whose name I do not know, I think Susannah, was married to Charles Hicks. I have an impression that there was still another who married Philip May, I am not prepared however to assert this as a fact. They had only two sons John H. and William. William* was in many respects a singular man. He never married, never had a home of his own, never engaged in any occupation. He just lived among his relatives, and made the home of his father his headquarters. He had a peculiar idea about his dressing. He invariably wore a suit of red Jeans (home made cloth) his countenance was florid, hence he was called by a number of people "Red Buck". He performed several trips on foot from Georgia and Alabama to visit relatives, he had in those states, and it was on one of these trips he died. I think, in Georgia. He was found dead in a branch. It was supposed he stopped to wash his face and hands and was seized with a fit of some kind, perhaps apoplexy; fell into the water and was supposed to have been drowned.

A BRIEF RECORD OF THE McDANIEL FAMILY FROM WHICH MRS. E. M. HAMER DESCENDED ON HER MATERNAL SIDE

James McDaniel was born June 27th 1762

Ann, wife of James McDaniel, was born March 4th 1774

Sarah McDaniel, daughter of James and Ann McDaniel and wife of Shadrack Fuller, was born March 4th 1791.

Anna McDaniel, daughter of James and Ann McDaniel and who was married to David Stubbs, was born January 3rd 1793.

Mary McDaniel, daughter of James and Ann McDaniel, and wife of Joel Thomas, was born March 26 1896.

Joseph, son of James and Nancy McDaniel, was born September 6, 1798

James McDaniel, son of James and Nancy McDaniel was born January 18 1802.

* See statement, Wm. Hamer's—12 Bible.

Rachel McDaniel, daughter of James and Nancy McDaniel, and wife of Philip S. Thomas, was born May 19th 1807.

John B. McDaniel, son of James and Nancy McDaniel, was born May 5th 1811.

Nancy McDaniel died in the year 1865

James McDaniel, her son died in 1830

N. B. I have sometime written Ann McDaniel, and then Nancy, she was familiarly known by that name. (Nancy and Ann are the same name—one Scotch, the other English—F.H.H.)

HISTORY OF THE DILLON BRANCH OF THE HAMER FAMILY

By

ROBERT PICKETT HAMER, JR.

OCTOBER 30, 1911

to be placed in

THE CORNER STONE OF THE DILLON COUNTY COURT HOUSE
DILLON, SOUTH CAROLINA

Robert Cochran Hamer moved from that section of Marlboro County, now called Tatum, to what was then know as Upper Marion County but now Dillon County about the year of 1823. He was born year of 1801 and died year of 1878 and was buried at the Little Rock Methodist Church with Masonic honors. He having been a charter member of Mackey Lodge 77 A.F.M. He married Mary Bethea, a daughter of Tristram Bethea, who lived where Lawrence Manning now lives. There were born to them four (4) children: John Hicks Hamer, Truss Hamer (He died about eighteen years old), Elizabeth Ann Hamer, and Robert Pickett Hamer. Robert Cochran Hamer, as a young man, taught school and then purchased a home and farmed. He accumulated a large property for his day, and when he died he left each grandchild either a tract of land or one thousand dollars in money, and made the parent of the child the guardian for the amount left the child. He was a Magistrate and also one of the Commission who built the present Marion County Court house. He was known as a very cautious, pains-taking, just man, and had the respect of all classes of people.

John Hicks Hamer (named for his grandfather) was given a home, about one mile south of Little Rock, by his father; and he has always lived on it and now resides there with his third wife. He is now about seventy-six years old. He first married Missouri Bethea, and to them was born one son, Robert Missouri Hamer who now lives in Spartanburg, S. C., as Secretary and Treasurer of Converse College. Missouri, as he is called, married Miss May Townsend of Robeson County, North Carolina, and they have one child, a son, John D. Hamer, now about twenty-one years old.

The second wife of John Hicks Hamer was Sarah Alice Richardson from below Marion and to them the following children were born:

Edward Richardson Hamer, Mary Bethea Hamer (now Mrs. Neill Berry), Tristram Bethea Hamer (now a doctor in Texas), Orianna Hamer (now Mrs. L. A. Manning) and John Hicks Hamer, Jr. (now a dentist at Dillon, S. C.). John Hicks Hamer, Sr., and his sons have been good, progressive men, enjoying the good will and respect of their neighbors. His daughters are two excellent women and are good church workers, as was the case of their mother.

The third wife of John H. Hamer, Sr., was the widow Liles, whose maiden name was Fannie Fladger. They married about 1884 or 1885, but have never had any children. She is an excellent woman.

Elizabeth Ann Hamer (second child of Robert Cochran Hamer who lived to be grown) married first John S. Thompson (son of Joe Thompson of Robeson County, North Carolina) and to them were born three children: Mollie (who married Lewis Hamer), Tristram Bethea Thompson (who married Flora Bethea, daughter of Dr. Frank Bethea, and to them two sons were born, Truss and Frank Thompson. Parents both died several years ago). John S. Thompson was the third child of her (Elizabeth Ann Hamer) first marriage and he is a progressive, fine citizen; one of the largest merchants and farmers of Dillon County. He now owns and lives at the T. F. Stackhouse home near Dillon, S. C., having paid in the year 1910 seventy-five thousand dollars for six hundred and fifty acres in this place. He has large and valuable property near Dillon and if he lives will be a rich man of great influence. He married Miss Annie Smith of Alabama, and they have six or seven children. The oldest is J. Russell Thompson, now about twenty-one years old. The second husband of Elizabeth Ann was Lemuel Thompson of Robeson County, North Carolina. He was a most excellent Christian gentleman and everyone loved him for his sterling character. To them were born the following children: Lucy Thompson (who married Dolph Stackhouse), Robert H. Thompson (who married a Miss Woodley of Clio, S. C.), Hugh Thompson (who died about sixteen years old) and Lottie Thompson (who married Dr. Timmerman and they live at Batesburg, S. C.).

Robert Pickett Hamer, Sr. (youngest child of Robert Cochran Hamer) was given a home about one mile north of the town of Little Rock, S. C. He spent his whole life thereon and died at the Summer home of his son, Robert P. Hamer, Jr., in Saluda, N. C., on August 19, 1911. He married Sara Delphina McCall, a daughter of Wm. McCall of Darlington County, in 1861. To them were born the following children: Robert Pickett Hamer, Jr., Elizabeth McCall Hamer, Wm. McCall Hamer, John Dewitt (died when sixteen years old), May Bethea Hamer, James Willis Hamer, Sadie Delphina Hamer, Margaret Louise Hamer (died about fourteen years old in Philadelphia), Brooks McC. Hamer, A. Maude Hamer and Norma Lee Hamer.

Robert Pickett Hamer was unusually fortunate in his marriage as his wife was a lady of the finest traits of character, educated thoroughly and refined. She was a full graduate of old Barhamville College of the class of 1861. She had a great artistic talent and was of an industrious nature. She left her impress not only on her family but on the community in which she lived. She died Nov. 9, 1902 and is buried at the Little Rock Methodist Church.

Robert Pickett Hamer was a progressive man of fine judgment and business talent. He accumulated a large property. Left his family in good circumstances, having given every child a college education and good property. He had high ideals for truth and justice and a man of strong mind and fixed ideas of his own.

Robert Pickett Hamer, Jr. (eldest child of Robt. Pickett Hamer, Sr. and Sara D. Hamer) was born in Darlington County, now Florence County, S. C., April 10, 1863. He graduated at the South Carolina College in the class of 1885. Clerked and acted as cashier for J. W. Dillon & Son at Little Rock from July 1st till January 1, 1886. On January 7, 1886 he married Janie Brown McCallum, daughter of Brown McCallum, and they have had born to them the following children: Katie Brown Hamer, who died when eighteen years old; Robert Cochran Hamer, who is now twenty-one years old; Sara Delphina Hamer; Flora Janie Hamer and Brown McCallum Hamer.

Robert Pickett Hamer, Jr. has always lived on the farm. He was elected to the Legislature of South Carolina in 1909 and was one of the last Legislators to serve from old Marion before the division of the County. He had the honor of introducing the bill in the House to establish Dillon County and was one of the original Courthouse commissioners and a member of the building Committee of the Commission to erect the Dillon County Courthouse. Was elected by the Legislature as a trustee of the University of South Carolina, and is now serving his second term of five years each. Was president of the State Fair and moved the Fair to present location. He has extensive farms in Dillon, Marlboro, Robeson (N.C.) and Richland Counties. He accumulated a large property.

Elizabeth McCall Hamer married T. B. Stackhouse in 1885 and to them was born one child, Sadie Stackhouse. They live now in the City of Columbia.

William McCall Hamer married Shadie Livingston, daughter of Col. Knox Livingston of Bennettsville, S. C. His wife died April 1909. She left three little girls: Shadie, Sallie McCall and Ella Wells, who live with their grandparents. They are bright and pretty children.

Wm. McCall Hamer is President of the three Dillon County Cotton Mills—Dillon, Maple, and Hamer by name. He has been very successful in business and has fine judgment.

May Bethea Hamer married Holmes Harden, Jr. of Chester, S. C., and they reside in Chester at this time. To them a daughter, Sallie McCall Harden, was born but they lost her at about seven months old.

James Willis Hamer married Sallie Breeden, a daughter of Tom Breeden of Bennettsville. He has the following children: Louisa, Lura Dean, Ilene (Aileen), James W. Hamer, Jr. He has devoted his entire attention to farming and has been quite a success. Has the handsomest home in the county and one of the most beautiful farms. Always cultivates it like a garden. He has been successful financially.

Brooks Hamer married Walker Bennett and has three boys and one girl: Bennett, DeWitt, Brooks and Walker. Brooks Hamer, like his brother James, has given his attention to the farm and has made a success and now owns a large and valuable farm. He is industrious and makes fine crops. He has an elegant summer home in Saluda, N. C.

The other three daughters, Sadie, Maude and Norma Lee are single and lived at the old home with their father till his death. They are still living at the old homestead.

There was another branch of the Hamer family in Dillon, but they have moved from the county.

HAMMER AND HAMER

FROM FITZHUGH LEE COVINGTON
TO:
W. L. HAMER, R.F.D. 4
WEST POINT, GEORGIA

In 1790, according to the U. S. Census of S. C., JOHN HAMER was living in 96 District with 2 sons under 16 years, four females and some property.

In 1790 in the same county WILLIAM HAMER was living with 3 sons under 16 and two females and some property.

In 1790 in the same county another JOHN HAMER was living without sons, but with two females, one slave and other property.

NOTE: 96 District takes in Edgefield County, S. C. and other counties to the north, Abbeville Co., etc.

The district runs along the Savannah River. On the west of Savannah river is Columbia, Wilkes and other counties. Richmond, Columbia and Wilkes Cos., Ga. were key counties where many families from the north came.

In 1790, according to the U. S. Census of N. C., five heads of families were living with their families as follows: BRITTON J. HAMER, FRANCIS, JOHN, JOHN and a Mrs. MARY HAMER, a widow.

In 1782, according to the census of Va., no one by the name, but there was a MICHAEL HAMARR (OR HAMER) (OR HAMMER).

In 1790, according to U. S. Census of Md., the families run as follows: Mrs. CATHERINE HAMER, GEORGE HAMER, also WILLIAM HAMAR (OR HAMER).

In 1790, according to U. S. Census of Penn., the heads of families listed as follows: ADAM HAMAR, FREDERICK, HENRY, and JAMES HAMER.

(It is probable that your family came originally from Penn. or Md. by boat in the summertime to Charleston, S. C.; then eventually arrived in 96th dist., possibly Edgefield County, S. C.) (No—F.H.H.).

In 1790, the families from the north were on the move southward, then westward.

In 1843, according to the Troup Co., Ga. History (LaGrange), JAMES T. HAMER was born_____, died in 1922; married Sarah Ann Mallery, born 1842; died 1908. (Our Hamers—F.H.H.)

From Troup Co. Hist. pg. 303 by Smith: ORAN WHATLEY born 1810, died 1890; came from Wilkes or Greene Co., Ga.; married 1st, Mathilda, born 1816, died 1874; married 2nd, Mrs. Eliza Lovelace; married 3rd, Mrs. S. J. HAMER. He came to Troup Co. 1827, possibly direct from Wilkes or Greene Co., Ga.

The HICKS and HAMERS were traveling together from N. C. to S. C.

In 1939 in LaGrange, Ga., Miss SARAH ALICE HAMER was buried at Salem Church. She was 64 years old; survived by a sister, Mrs. J. E. SMITH, LaGrange; two brothers, A. E. HAMER, LaGrange, and W. C. HAMER, Salem, Ga. (Our Hamers—F.H.H.)

In 1790, according to U. S. Census of S. C., DAVID HAMMAR was living in the state.

In 1790 in N. C., SOLOMON HAMMER was living in the state.

In 1782 in Va., GEORGE HAMMER was living in the state.

In 1790, according to the U. S. Census of Md., the following heads of families are listed with their families: FRANCIS, JACOB, JOHN, JONAS, MICHAEL, PHILLIP AND TOBIAS HAMMER (HAMER). No doubt the name Hammer and Hamer are the same. The difference in spelling came about through the census takers. Names were new to them then and they had no previous guide to go by. As an example, notice how the names Callaway, Calloway, Calleway are used and printed by people and newspapers today.

In 1790, according to the U. S. Census of Penn., we find ABRAHAM, ALLEN, CATHERINE, CONRAD, FREDERICK, GEORGE, GEORGE, JACOB, JOHN, LUDWIG, PETER, THOMAS AND THOMAS HAMMER or HAMER.

In 1938, from Columbus, Ga., from the Burrus family, Columbus, Ga., Mr. GEO. J. BURRIS, SR., 84, buried. He was born in Marlenheim, Alsace-Lorraine, France. His wife, formerly Miss CATHERINE HAMMER, was born in Waesbach, Germany.

According to N. C. Roster of the Amer. Rev. printed by the D.A.R. of N. C., the following were Rev. Soldiers: STEPHEN HAMER AND PATRICK HAMERS or HAMER.

In 1944, in Atlanta, Ga., Mr. PAUL HAMER was living 980 Briarcliff Rd. N. E., Atlanta, Ga.—He might know something of the family—

Mr. ARTHUR A. HAMMER, 400 Kendrick Ave. S. E., Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Wm. C. HAMMER, 19 Rhodesia Ave., S. C.

Respectfully,
Fitzhugh Lee Covington

* * * *

Hugh Hamer, born in England and came to America while an infant. He later served in the Revolutionary War as a soldier. I do not know his parent's name nor the name of his wife nor the number of children, Hugh and Joseph perhaps more.

Joseph Hamer, son of Hugh Hamer the Rev. Soldier, was born in the State of New York and married Martha Mattox. They moved to Indiana in 1829 to join his brother Hugh Hamer who had preceded him in 1825. There he entered the flour mill and continued in this business for 40 years, Mitchell, Indiana. They had five children and several served in the War Between the States, Hugh, their son, lost his life in the Battle of Missionary Ridge. He was in Company F. the 15th Regiment of Indiana Volunteers, buried in the National Cemetery, Chattanooga, Tennessee, Section I. Grave 385. Hugh had served as a Senator and was very public spirited and most promising.

James M. Hamer, son of Joseph and Martha Mattox Hamer, was born Seymour, Indiana, 26 October 1854, he married first May Dunkle. There were four children. 1—James E. was in the Spanish American War, Company F. 18th Regiment U. S. Infantry. He married Olive Brown. 2—Laura Maude Hamer married Ferdinando W. Wesner of Seymour, Ind. James M. Hamer married the second time to Emma Johnson of Ohio and they had one son Harry L. who died.

At the age of 18 years, James Hamer began as a water boy for the R.R. and continued to work for the R.R. in various positions for 21 years, then he opened a Coal Business of James M. Hamer and Company. It was noted for its owner's industrious ways and the honorable methods of conducting his business. He was a member of Jackson Lodge No. 146, A.F.M.; Scottish Rite Shriner; and Methodist. They lived in Seymour, Indiana. Hugh Hamer of Mitchell was an Uncle of James M. Hamer.

Hugh Hamer, a native of New York State died 10 March 1872, married Elizabeth Johnson Fitzpatrick (daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Johnson Fitzpatrick). He moved from New York to Ohio, then into Indiana, Marion Township, where he became a famous miller, the mill still bears the name "HAMER MILL". There was an article in the Saturday Evening Post, about 1945, about this mill and the Ohio and Indiana Hamers. Hugh and his brother, Thomas L. rented the mill in 1825, they were successful, so Hugh purchased it in 1830 for $7,000.00 and they ran it together until 1849 when Hugh became the sole operator until his death. In 1816 Hugh was commissioned Post Master of "MILL SPRINGS" by President Jackson. This position he held until the Ohio and Miss. R.R. was built. Hugh served in the Legislature 1839-1840 and in the senate chamber 1844, with honor and credit. He was the first Whig to be elected to the General Assembly from Lawrence County. He also served as County Commissioner. A man of Keen mind and high Integrity, a sterling Pioneer. Until 1832 sheep raising was impossible due to wolves, so there were many adept hunters, Hugh Hamer and Ben Turley were among the leaders. Mitchell Seminary was established 1859-1860 and it required that two thirds of its trustees be Baptist. Hugh Hamer was a member of the Board and Trustees. There were eight children;

George W. Hamer, son of Hugh and Elizabeth Fitzpatrick Hamer, died 1 October 1904 in Marion Township where he possessed a lovely old homestead. He married 16 June 1859 to Priscilla Leach, both of Lawrence County. He owned 600 acres of land. He served seven months in the War Between the States in the 117th Regiment Indiana Volunteers, Company H. as Wagon Master. He was a Mason in the Lawrenceport Lodge No. 453, Royal Arch Mason, charter member. There were six Children; 1—James Frank; 2—Harry C.; 3—Minnie M.; 4—Ida M.; 5—George Albert; 6—Ralph N.; three of whom died.

George Albert Hamer, son of George W. and Priscilla Leach Hamer, married 23 September 1895 to Alma Parker. He received his education in Southern Indiana Normal College, Mitchell, Indiana. Through his industry, integrity, patience, temperance and determination he worked himself into a high and honorable position in his community. He was first in the Hardware business, then a farmer, next an assessor. A member of the Baptist Church, A.F.M. Lodge No. 128. There were four children;
1 Frank V.; 2 George W.; 3 John N.; 4 Priscilla H.

HAMER MILL

Hamer Mill was owned before 1815 by a Canadian who served in the war of 1812, by name of Sam Jackson. When he became possessor of the mill it was a corn mill and turned by water from a cave through poplar logs. William Wright was the miller. In 1816 he sold the mill to Thomas Bullitt and in turn he sold to the Montgomery Brothers, with a distillery. Hugh Hamer, in 1830, purchased the mill for $7,000.00. He remodeled the distillery and his products were shipped into New Orleans. His son Robert B. Hamer inherited the mill but later sold it to Jonathan Turley. This mill was run from a cave which is also known as the "HAMER CAVE" which is six feet wide, 300 feet long and covered with water 8 feet and 20 inches deep.

COLLATERAL FAMILIES

BETHEA

John Bethea, known as English John, was born about 1684 and must have come from England to Nansemond County Virginia and from there moved to North Carolina or the State line was changed. A deed from John Bethea to his youngest son, Tristram, dated 16 July 1735 and recorded in Chowan Precinct, later Gates County N. C. proves that John Bethea was alive in 1735 and his son, Tristram, was grown and perhaps married as he was living on the land conveyed to him. We gather that English John was aged as he reserved the right of erecting a house on any part of the plantation to, "Live and abide during the term of his natural life." He must have died in that part of N. C. now Gates County. Nothing is known of his wife, she must have passed away prior to 1735. (For deed see KF. p 1964).

From records in Kinfolks we find that English John had sons, John, who was known as Virginia John, and Tristram who remained in North Carolina. He married Ann Goodman and their descendants may be found in Robeson County, N. C. From the records of William, son of Virginia John, it is concluded that said William was born 1726 and his father, Virginia John, was born 1705; therefore, English John was married prior to 1705. He must have been at least 21 years of age when his son John was born, from this we draw the conclusion that English John was born prior to 1684. The family tradition is that he came from England to Virginia soon after 1700, but as all the records of Nansemond County have been destroyed we have this by tradition.

We have evidence that William Bethea resided in Chowan County, N. C. by a deed recorded April 7, 1747. He must have moved into Johnson County, N. C. between 1747 and 1748 as a deed is recorded there to Samueal Wells from William Bethea dated 23 January 1748. In 1756 there is land deed to him in South Carolina on Beaver Dam near Sweat Swamp about three miles of Little Rock, S. C. At this place he and his wife, Sarah Goodman, lived and died. Both are buried in the Bethea Sweat Swamp Cemetery. Their son John and his wife, Mary Henagan are buried there with markers but their son Philip's grave is also there. In the records of South Carolina there are land grants to William Bethea from George II of 100 acres and from George III of 150 acres (for grants see K.F. pg 2174) "He, William Bethea, was an active Whig." (Gregg's Hist. of the Old Cheraws pg 86).

The children of William Bethea and Sarah Goodman are: 1—John Bethea, Rev. Soldier. 2—Goodman Bethea 3—Philip Bethea 4—Jesse Bethea 5—Martha Bethea 6—Charity Bethea.

1—John Bethea was born 20 October 1753 in Johnson County N. C. and died in Marion County S. C. 4 March 1852, married Mary Henagan before 1775. She was born 1756 and died September 1828. Active Patriot (See K.F. pg 2177) Revolutionary War. Their children were: A—William Bethea born July 23, 1775 married Olive Pearce—Ancestors of Catherine (Kitty) Bethea wife of Daniel Hicks Hamer (12133), B—Tristram Bethea born 1776 died Lowdesboro, Alabama, 8 July 1856, married Mrs. Anna Pearce Bethea—widow of Jesse Bethea—born 1771 died 1800. They are parents of Mary Ann Bethea, wife of Robert Cochran Hamer (1215). Tristram Bethea was a Captain in the War of 1812-1815 (See K.F. pg 2243), C—Cade Bethea born 1792 died 1867 married his cousin Kitty Bethea. He served in the War of 1812-1815 (See K.F. pg 2260), D—Elizabeth Bethea born 1782 died 1837, married Jeremiah Walter of Robeson County, N. C., E—Sarah Bethea born 1785 died 1860, married Timothy Rogers born 1777 died 1856. He was in the war of 1812-1815 in Capt. Elijah Bethea's Company (See K.F. pg 2310), F—Martha Bethea born 1790 died 1853, married John Braddy born 1789 died 1744 (See K.F. pg 2331).

2—Goodman Bethea married Mary Council, daughter of Captain Henry Council. He was born 1759 died 1797 present Dillon County, S. C. He was a Lieutenant in the Rev. War. (K.F. pg 2183). His sons moved to Illinois and near by states. He remained in Marion County and is buried in Sweat Swamp Bethea Cemetery. He was a Lieutenant in the Revolutionary War. In Historical Commission S. C. (See K.F. pg 2183) (His grave is marked).

3—Philip Bethea born 1766 died , married Anna Bethea, his cousin, daughter of Jesse Bethea. They had no heirs. He was a Justice of Peace. He was a Colonel in the S. C. Militia. It is believed that he is buried in the Sweat Swamp Cemetery with his parents. His will is recorded in Marion County, S. C. (K.F. pg 2187).

4—Jesse Bethea born 1763 died 1820, married Cella Harrelson born 2 January 1768 died , daughter of Benjamin Harrelson of Marion County, S. C. He moved to Monroe County, Alabama, 1818. The reocrds of Marion County show him to be a Justice of Peace 1803 (See K.F. pg 2203-04).

5—Martha Bethea married Othneil Trawick, she was his second wife.

6—Charity Bethea born 1772 died , married a Lee. She and her husband died near Columbia, Marion County, Mississippi.

John Bethea, brother of William and a son of Virginia John, born 1740 died , married Absala Parker born died 15 September 1811, after her death he married Lucy . All the children were by the first marriage. Both wives are buried Bethea Buck Swamp Cemetery, near Latta, S. C. He was called John senior or Buck Swamp John to distinguish him from his nephew John, son of William, who finally got the name of "Devil John" for taking revenge on the Tories who were so cruel to his father William. John senior's descendants are known as Buck Swamp Betheas and William's as Sweat Swamp Betheas. Land was granted to John senior 1772, so he must have come to S. C. not later than 1771. This place was near Marlboro County line and close to his brother William. He must have remained there until after the war then moved towards Buck Swamp close to Latta, S. C. (See K.F.P. 2090 for Land Grants. Rev. Record, pg 2097). He and Absala Parker had five sons and four daughters. He was an active Patriot during the Revolutionary War (K.F. 2097). A—William married 1st a Crawford and 2nd a Shackelford. He settled near his father, B—James married Margaret Cochran, daughter of Thomas Cochran, ancestors of Blanche Gibson Hamer (121731W). He settled near Little Reedy Creek, C—Philip married Rachel Cochran, sister to Margaret, settled near Cat Fish Creek on Mars Bluff road. Served in War 1812 (See K.F. 2115), D—Elisha did not marry but has a real war record, see Kinfolks, E—Parker married Elizabeth Harllee, and settled at Bethea's Cross Roads, Marlboro Line, F—Sara or Sallie married Levi Odom but they had no heirs, G—Mollie married John Owens but they had no heirs, H—Absala married John Owens, widower of her sister, Sallie. They moved to Natchez, Mississippi, I—Pattie married a John Owens, son of Ned Owens.

Much more can be learned about the Betheas from Kinfolks, by Col. Wm. C. Harllee, and many very interesting stories during the Revolutionary War and the War between the States, and of the country at that time are to be found between its covers. Copies may be gotten from Mrs. W. C. Harllee, 1753 Lamont Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

COCHRAN

THOMAS COCHRAN was a mere lad when he ran away from his parents in Vermont. He came to South Carolina and here he married Lucretia Council and settled on the Great Pee Dee River just above the mouth of Crooked Creek, near the site of the Old Court House.

Thomas Cochran was born July 8, 1746 and died April 15, 1818. He married first Lucretia Council on April 4, 1771.

1—Cochran, Robert C.—the father of Mrs. Simon Emanual, (K.F. pg 2107).

2—Cochran, Nancy—wife of John Hicks Hamer (K.F. pg 2107).

3—Cochran, Margaret—wife of James Bethea (K.F. pg 2107).

4—Cochran, Rachel—wife of Philip Bethea (K.F. pg 2107).

5—Cochran, Thomas—died November 11, 1804.

Thomas Cochran Sr. married the second time to Miss Griffin and they had 6—Cochran, Louise—wife of Henry Covington of Bennettsville.

7—Cochran, Martha—wife of Thomas Cargill, they had one son who died unmd.

Thomas Cochran Sr. married the third time Mrs. Elizabeth (House) Hunter, a widow.

8—Cochran, Claudius M.—he married Eleanor Pouncy (a descendant of Col. Kolb) (a daughter of Major Pouncy). Claudius M. moved to Alabama about 1840 and has descendants in Texas. He died in Alabama February 22, 1844 and Eleanor died September 1, 1889. (Mrs. Ida Crumpton Edwards of Belton, Texas has the Bible of Claudius M. Cochran that he had in Alabama).

FROM JAMES AND MARGARET COCHRAN BETHEA'S BIBLE

Thomas Cochran Senior married Lucretia Council April 4, 1771 and he died April 15, 1818 and his wife, Lucretia died September, 1784, and Thomas Junior departed this life November 4, 1804.

Margaret Cochran was born September 10, 1782.

Margaret Bethea departed this life January the 26, 1849, being in her 66 years 4 months and 16 days old.

FROM CLAUDIUS M. COCHRAN'S BIBLE

The Bible is owned by Mrs. Annie Covington Mowery, Bennettsville, S. C.

Thomas Cochran, the father of Claudius M. Cochran, was born July 8th in the year of our Lord 1746 and departed this life the 15th of April 1818.

Claudius M. Cochran was born in the year of our Lord 1804, January 30th.

Claudius M. Cochran and Eleanor B. Pouncy, his wife, were married in the year of our Lord 1825, December 29th.

Thomas Cochran Sr. was a Revolutionary soldier for three years—1775-1778—in Captain Wise's Company, 3rd Regiment of South Carolina Continental Line. The roll states: Age, 28 years; Place of birth, New England; Height, 5 feet 10 inches. (South Carolina Historical Magazine, July 1900 and July 1901). He later served in the Revolutionary War as Lieutenant in Col. George Hick's Regiment, South Carolina Militia. Record for pay as such is now on file in the Historical Commission, South Carolina.

Mrs. Thomas C. Hamer
702 Main Street
Bennettsville, S. C.

My dear Mrs. Hamer:—

I am sending you a copy of the Cochran MS with a separate chart showing where your line comes in (see pg 67). Robert Cochran who removed to S. C. was a son of Thomas, son of James etc. As you may find difficulty in following the very involved record compiled by Robert Cochran (called "Honest Robert") in 1730, I will show you how your line runs. I spent much time in working out a series of charts of the data given by "Honest Robert" and believe I now have the various branches straight as in several searches they have proved up. It is a pity the scribe did not supply any dates; but I have gathered up a few in the course of my searches and these enable us to get at approximate dates for others of the same generation. There are quite a few Cochran gravestones in the old burial-grounds in N. H. The dates of "Old Peter's" birth and death are on his headstone at 'Derry, N. H.

Beginning with "Honest Robert's" Pioneer in Ireland, John Cochran of Fernois (1590), the line seems (for you) as follows:

1 John Cochran of Fernois—

2 James Cochran and Janet Burns.

3 James Cochran and Eleanor Simson (Simpson) of Culies

4 Peter Cochran 1625-1722 and Christian Wallace

5 James Cochran and Letitia Patton

6 Thomas Cochran (1702-1791) and Jennett or Mary Adams

7 Robert Cochran 1736-1824 and —Elliott (went to South Carolina)

If this be your line (as I feel here it is), you must be now about Gen 10. You say your Thomas C. came from Vermont. The above line was first located in N. H. but many of the settlers went over to Vermont. You have not given me any dates; but Robert Cochran—who was born 1736 could have had a son—born 1762, who could have served in the Rev. War (your Thomas?). Marriages were very early in pioneer days—often before the age of 21 and Rev. War service was performed by many youths of 16 years.

It may be that a more extended search would provide more data of Thomas Cochran of Vermont. But I do not doubt that what I am sending you is accurate as far as it goes. If you are getting up a history of your line, I would advise you to try and get hold of a History of Londonderry, N. H. as it contains quite a lot of Cochran data. I have some notes on another collateral of the Thomas Cochran branch but do not include it as it might confuse you.

The material I am sending is what I offered to supply for a fee of ten dollars. A copy of the charts in full would cost ten dollars additional; but I do not see how they would be of any use to you except to help you understand "Honest Robert" and show you the extent of the Cochran labyrinth.

If I can help you further, kindly let me know.

Yours sincerely,
Eleanor M. Hiestand-Moore

My dear Mrs. Harmer:—(Hamer)

I have received your letter of October 17 and am glad to have the data you send. At the moment, I cannot add anything to the data already sent you; but the statements you have, seem to point very definitely to the fact that your Thomas Cochran was from Vermont. Do you care to spend any money on this search? If you are willing to do so I will go to the Historical Society and make a search (fee $10.00) in the Vital Statistics of Vermont where it may be the birth of Thomas Cochran is recorded and names of his parents. These records were kept very carefully in the New England Colonies and are very valuable to the genealogist. They contain births, marriages and deaths (dates of some) with some subsidiary information.

The Vermont Cochrans were of the stock as those in N. H. and Mass. The two colonies overflowed so to speak into Vermont and New York (Northern part). I have a lot of data of the N. E. Blairs who were contemporaries and neighbors of the Cochrans and my searches show that at a certain time there was a definite migration to Vermont of a number of settlers. The founders of these colonies came (1) to Massachusetts Bay in 1718. There were seven ship loads of settlers from Ulster and the majority were from Antreim and Derry. (See Bolton's Scotch Irish Emigrants). History says Gov. Shute of Mass. had given them permission to come but did not expect so many! When they arrived in such numbers, he wouldn't let them all land in the Mass. Colony but sent some up the Merrimac River to New Hampshire. It was terribly cold up there the following winter and the colony suffered much. Many became dissatisfied and started in search of a more temporate climate. It is said that the following year a "wagon train" started across country and that some of these nomads came as far as Pennsylvania. There were colonies all along this trail N. H., Vt., N. J., N. Y., and Penna. I mention this to show you that all of these Cochrans started from the same place. There were about a dozen Cochran men who signed the Shute Memorial which was a petition to be allowed to join the Mass. Colony. From the Cochran MS, it appears that all the Cochrans in Ulster were of the same stock. Descendants of John Cochran (living in Ireland 1590) and his three sons, John, Hugh and James. So far as I can make out, the majority of those Cochrans who came to 'Derry, N. H. (formerly called "Nutfield") were descendants of James. The Cochran MS names some who emigrated to this place ('Derry, N. H.).

From what you write of the historical notes you found, I do not think your Thomas Cochran was the one I indicated in the old Peter Cochran line; but I believe he may have been of the family in another line. There are a great many descendants and I am sorry to say the lines are still in a tangle, though I have made some progress in straightening them out.

I notice what you say of your Thomas having run away from home at an early age. That was characteristic! They were a sea-faring people and had the wander-lust. The pioneer in Ireland (John 1) is said to have been a cousin to the Earl of Dundonald (Cochran) but I never have been able to prove this. However it was, he was a poor man as the Cochran fortunes at this period (1590) were at a low ebb. Pioneer "Irish John" got the salmon-fishing rights from Lord Strabane and his descendants held them for over a century. So Thomas Cochran who ran away, was true to type—just as some of my Blair people were! I have the mark myself!

It seems to me pretty certain that so far as D.A.R. records go, you have the right man in Lieut. Thomas C. who served with Col. George Hicks. The fact that he enlisted in 1775 at the age of 28 shows he was born 1747, which date is near enough to be considered proof i.e. he may have been in his 28th year and really born 1746 as you have it. You ought to try to find his grave and mark it.

About the Pee Dee River, I would like to find out any tradition which concerns Philip Davis—a pioneer who is said to have given his name P. D. to the River. Other traditions say Atkins discovered it and that his initials were "P. D." Was he called Philip Davis Atkins? A Davis from Penn, Md. went to the Carolinas and is lost. Of him it is said that Pee Dee River was discovered and named by him. This Davis family is the same one from which Jefferson Davis descended. Very old Colonial. The pioneer (Nathaniel) married 1680 a great niece of Powhatan. There is a great deal of interesting data in connection with the Cochrans and it will pay you to trail these people. They were old time Covenanters and I suppose your people were Presbyterians?

With best wishes for your success, I am

Yours sincerely,
Eleanor M. Hiestand-Moore

(NOTE: Our Thomas Cochran left home in New England and came South, tradition is that he and his father had a disagreement so Thomas changed his birth date to 1746 to lose his identity. He married Lucretia Council April 4, 1771, so was single in 1770, as given above by Mrs. Eleanor M. Hiestand-Moore (Genealogist).

Robert Cochran of Charleston must have been his brother as Thomas named his son Robert instead of Thomas as he and his father were at disagreement. Robert is still being used in our family, as it runs this way: Robert Cochran, Robert Pickett, Robert Pickett, Robert Cochran, Robert Pickett, and Robert Cochran Hamer, in our line.

COUNCIL

Henry Council, father of Lucretia Council Cochran, was a Captain in the Revolutionary army. (Greegs His. of Old Cheraws, p 333)

He had sons, William and Samuel. (His will shows this.) It is certain that Lucretia was his daughter and thought that Mary, wife of Goodman Bethea to be another daughter. (David W. Bethea)

Thomas Cochran and Goodman Bethea applied 18th January 1793 for letters of administration on the estate of Henry Council and on June 24th, 1793 on the estate of Rachel Council, widow of William Council.

Thomas Cochran was appointed and on May 2nd, 1794 he made returns for administration of their estates. Although Henry Council's will was approved 13th November 1784, his son William, named Executor, died in 1791, evidently before settling the estate. (Kinfolks, p 2010)

WILL OF HENRY COUNCIL

(Judge Probate Book B, p 24, Marlborough County, S. C.)

"In the name of God Amen: I, Henry Council of St. David Parish Craven County and State of South Carolina being afflicted and weak in body but of perfect sense and memory thanks be given unto God, therefore calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. That is to say principally and first of all, I give and recommend my Soul to God that gave it and as for my body I recommend it to the Earth to be buried in a Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors nothing doubting but at the General Resurection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, And as touching such wordly Estate wherewith hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.

"First I give and bequeath unto my son William Council all the lands in my possession in this State to him and his heirs forever. Also one negro fellow named Tom to him and his heirs forever.

"I also give and bequeath unto my son Samuel Council one negro boy named Pompy delivered unto him at the age of twenty-one years, my will and desire is that he may have a set of blacksmith tools delivered to him at the age of twenty-one years. I also give unto him a young horse that is now called his and my riding saddle.

"I also (appoint) my son William Council my sole executor.

"It is my will and desire that after my debts are settled and the legacies paid that the rest be equally divided amongst my children.

"Ratified and confirmed this and no other to be my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 13th day of October, 1781." (Kinfolks, p 2010)

THE GOODMANS OF VIRGINIA

There are numerous records of the Goodmans in Virginia as early as 1623. No doubt but they are ancestors of Henry Goodman of N. C. In Grimes Abstract of N. C. Wills there are records of Henry Goodman witnessing a will as early as 1684. He must have been the father of Henry Goodman who witnessed a will in 1735, 1744 and 1750 in Chowan Precinct. Henry Goodman Sr., Henry Goodman, Jr., and Timothy Goodman witnessed in 1745, in Chowan County, the will of John Pipkin whose wife was Martha. His son must have been the husband of Charity Goodman daughter of Henry Goodman Senior.

One will find records of numerous Goodmans, especially Henry, in the N. C. and Colonial records of N. C.

"Henry Goodman witnessed 7 April 1747 and 23 January 1748 deed for William Bethea to lands in Chowan Co. N. C."—"The signature on the 23 January 1748 deed was 'Henry Goodman Just' 'Present his Majesty's Justices' indicating that he was then Justice of Peace in Chowan Co."

"It is believed that the descendants of Henry Goodman are eligible for membership in societies, the members of which must be descendants from ancestors who lived in America prior to 1750 and held an important position in the Colonial Government, etc." (Kinfolks pg 2342)

It is assumed that Henry Goodman was born about 1700 and died 1783 in Gates County, N. C. His wife's name is not known and she must have died before 1778 as she is not mentioned in his will.

His children were 1, Ann, 2, William, 3, Rose, 4, Henry, 5, Timothy, 6, Sarah, 7, Joel, and 8, Charity.

1. Ann Goodman, born about 1720 died after 1790 married about 1735 to Tristram Bethea son of "Virginia" John Bethea. He was born before 1714 moved to S. C. Marlboro Co. on Buck Swamp.

2. William Goodman, born about 1722, died 1782 Gates County N. C. Served in N. C. Militia 1754 with brother Joel and brother-in-law Tristram Bethea. (Kinfolks p 2345.)

3. Rose Goodman born about 1724_____Brown.

4. Henry Goodman born about 1726 died after 1790 in Dobbs County N. C. He was quite prominent in N. C. (See N. C. Colonial and State Records. Kinfolks p 2341.)

5. Timothy Goodman born about 1728 died after 1790 Dobbs County N. C. (See Kinfolks, p 2349.)

6. Sarah Goodman born about 1730 died after 1776 near Little Rock, S. C. married_____in Chowan County N. C. to William Bethea born 1726 died near Little Rock, S. C. He was first son of Virginia John Bethea. He was a patriot in Revolutionary War.

7. Joel Goodman born about 1732 died Gates County, N. C. 1786 married_____Anna, she died after 1790. (See Kinfolks, p 2350.)

8. Charity Goodman born about 1734 married_____Pipkin.

Although they are not mentioned in his will, it is believed that Thomas and Samuel Goodman were sons of Henry Goodman and perhaps others.

Samuel Goodman was very prominent in N. C. He most likely died before 1778 and must have been born before 1720. It is quite evident that Samuel read law when he was young being appointed Justice of Peace of Bladen County N. C. in his young manhood. See Kinfolks p 2344 for further records of Samuel Goodman.

HENAGAN OR SWEENEY

"James Henagan of North Carolina was also known as James Sweeny. The reason for this may have been the Old Country Custom of using hyphenated names, as Henagan-Sweeny or Sweeny-Henagan. On coming to this country where hyphenated names were not in usage, different branches of the Sweeny-Henagan or Henagan-Sweeny family dropped one name and retained the other, in some cases even brothers used a different surname and later some member would change back to the surname they had dropped; therefore, we might find one brother Sweeny and the other Henagan.

The first known record of Sweeny is in the Register of St. Peter's Parish, New Kent County, Virginia, where in 1736 Joseph and Mary Sweeny recorded the birth and baptism of a daughter. Also in 1767, and 1770 where Joseph and Eliza Sweeny recorded the birth and baptism of two sons. There may be earlier records.

In Grimes Abstract of North Carolina Wills, 1690-1760 p 103 there is a will witnessed by John Henagan nick-named Sweeny. This will dated January 22—Julian, 1744.

The Index of Grimes Abstract of North Carolina Wills show the names of Sweeny, Swenny, Sweeney, etc. as witnessing wills as early as 1720 (No precinct named) ; 1728 Bertie Precinct; 1726 Perquimans Precinct; 1731-1732-1733-1734-1739-1743-1748-1750-1753 is Pasquotank County. As Legatee and Executor of wills 1734 Pasquotank County; 1754 Currituck County.

The earliest records of Sweeny and Henagan in the office of South Carolina Secretary of State, Columbia, South Carolina are 1734, 500 acres in Craven County to Miles Sweeny and 1755 to Jacob Henegin, 150 acres, fork of Broad and Saluda Rivers; 1776 Barnabas Henagan St. Davids Parish, Craven County, present Marlboro County. He owned many tracts of land in present Marlboro and Dillon Counties." (See Kinfolks p 2359 through 2361.)

"About 1756 the name of John Sweeny and others are found among the early settlements.

"James Sweeny is supposed to have been the Progenitor of the present family of Henagan."

"It is known that this was called the Sweeny family at an early period. When and why the change took place, is not known by the present generation." (Gregg's History of the Old Cheraws p 90-91.)

"In 1756 James Sweeny is supposed to have come to the Pee Dee. In some way the name was subsequently changed to Henagan. James Sweeny has a son, Barney, who had two sons, Darby and John." (Thomas' History of Marlboro County p 47.)

James Henagan was most likely born in North Carolina and probably died in Old Cheraw District, South Carolina. His children were: 1—Barnabas; 2—Darby; 3—John; 4—Cyrus; 5—Mary. 1—Barnabas was born about 1752 and died Marlboro County 1826. He married 1st Lucretia_____; married 2nd Elizabeth_____. She died 1851. His will and descendants are recorded in Kinfolks pgs. 2357-2370.

2—Darby lived and owned large tracts of land in Marlboro and Dillon Counties, but moved to Richmond County, North Carolina in 1787 where he died after 1796. The census of 1790—North Carolina—shows "Darby Hannagan" with 1 free white (supposed to be his wife) and 12 slaves. His children—if any—must have been grown and married. (Mentioned p 47 in History of Marlboro County—Thomas.) 3—John Henagan—he seemed to have used the surnames of Henagan and Sweeny at different times. (Mentioned in Gregg's History p 91; also in History of Marlboro County —Thomas, p 47.) He lived and owned land tracts in present Dillon County, South Carolina. 4—Cyrus Sweeny used the name Sweeny-Cyrus signed a deed for John Staling in it that they were brothers. His descendants are given in Kinfolks, pgs 2372-73. 5—Mary Henegan married John "Devil John" Bethea.

FROM CADE BETHEA'S BIBLE

John Bethea, father of Cade Bethea, was born 1750 and died March 4, 1812. Mary Henagan, wife of John Bethea, born 1756, died 1824.

THOMAS

The Thomas family of Marlboro County, South Carolina and nearby North Carolina Counties are descendants of Christopher Thomas, who came from Caermarthen, Wales about 1634 to Talbot County, Maryland. He was elected in 1638 to the House of Burgesses from Kent County. This was quite an honor as Kent County was the entire Eastern Shore of Maryland and it was the first Legislature Assembly.

He, Christopher, married a Miss Elizabeth Higgins and they had only one child, Tristram Thomas. He too was quite eminent and was a Commissioner to improve trade in the County of Talbot, 1685.

Tristram Thomas born died 1686 married Ann Coursey and settled in Queen Anne's County, Maryland.

2d (Rev.) Robert Thomas, (1st son of Stephen (3c) Thomas) married Mary Sands of Virginia. They came to Marlboro County S. C. about 1750. For fifty years he was a faithful minister of the Gospel leaving the Faith of his fathers (Quakers) and uniting with the Baptist Church. He was instrumental in establishing Beaver-Dam and Salem Churches in Marlboro County. He was preaching when the Revolution began and he gave his eldest surviving son to the cause. He, Rev. Robert, died at Britton's Neck, Marion District, at the age of 84, while visiting his daughter and his friends there brought his remains fifty miles and buried him beside his wife. "It is upon record that he sometimes visited the camp and preached to the Soldiers." (S.O.M. p 56) None of his sons entered the ministry but five or more of his grandsons did, and seven of his great grandsons, Rev. L. M. Hamer being the last to pass away.

BIBLE RECORDS

WILLIAM HAMER—12

William Hamer left it to his son John Hicks Hamer (121), then to Robert Cochran Hamer (1215), then it passed on to John Hicks Hamer (12152), who in turn gave it to his daughter, Oriana Hamer (12152b) Manning. She and her daughters presented it to Flora Hamer Hooker (121531b) in June 1946. She now has it in Spartanburg, S. C.

The Bible is now quite dilapidated. Its Title and other pages before the book of Deuteronomy also other pages are missing. It is evidently a very old Bible. If it had blank pages for family records, they have disappeared. The records listed below were written in, apparently long ago on the margin of pages here and there throughout the Bible.

Notes in brackets were by W. C. Harllee or initialed by the donor.

Hannah Hamer departed this life 17 day of May about 1 o'clock in the morning, she being in her 58th year of her age buried 18 according to Disipl. of Friends meeting or otherwise Quakers. (The year of her death is not revealed. She may have been the wife of John Hamer and mother of Jack (or John) who was born Dec. 1733 and William who was born April 18, 1746).

Sary Hamer daughter of John Hamer and Mary his wife was born May 1st 1773. (This John Hamer may have been the Jack Hamer born Dec. 1744).

Jack Hamer was born Dec. 1733.

George Hamer son of Jack was born May the 12th 1777.

Peggy was born April 9th 1770.

Jane was born May the (illegible) 1785.

Jack son of Jack was born June the 5th 1787.

Luce was born March 22d 1790.

William Hamer was born April 18th 1746 and departed this life May 5th 1774 he being in the 29 year of his age.

John H. Hamer and Nancy Cochran was married May 19th 1791. (This John (H(ix) Hamer was the son of William and France Hix Hamer).

Nancy Cochran was born 1772 and died 1820.

William Hamer son of John Hamer and Nancy his wife was born March 22d 1792.

Thomas Hamer son of John Hamer and Nancy his wife was born October 5th 1793.

Daniel Hamer, son of John Hamer and Nancy his wife was born December 10th 1794.

Rachel Hamer daughter of John Hamer and Nancy his wife was born September 8th 1796.

Robert H. Hamer the son of John Hamer and Nancy was born the year our Lord October 24th 1801. (This refers to Robert C. Hamer who is otherwise shown to have been born 23 October 1801. His middle name apparently was changed.)

Thomas Cochran was born in 1746 and died 1818. Married Lucretia Council 1771. (Parents of Nancy who married John H. Hamer.)

William Hamer and Ann Clark was married June 9th 1791. (Thought to be the son of William and Frances Hicks Hamer.)

Samuel Councel and Frances Hamer was married February 11th 1791. (After the death of William Hamer, his widow, Frances (Hix) Hamer married Nathaniel Curtis.)

Susannah Curtis Daughter of Nathaniel Curtis and Frances his wife was born January 8th 1777.

Nathaniel Curtis son of Nathaniel Curtis was born March 17th, 1781.

JOHN HICKS HAMER—12152
1835—1916

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

John H. Hamer, father of Robert C. Hamer, was born in Anson County, North Carolina, moved to Marlboro County, S. C. and married Nancy Cochran. By that marriage had seven sons—William, Thomas, Daniel, Henry C., Robert C., James, and Alfred, also six daughters—Ann, Rachel, Mary, Martha, Sarah R., and Charlotte Ann. All of the above raised families except Charlotte and Sarah. After the death of Nancy (J. H. Hamer's wife) he married a Miss Thomas and by her had two sons, Philip May and Lewis Myers.

My maternal grandfather, Tristram Bethea, was born and married in Marion County. Married a widow named, Annie Pearce Bethea and by that marriage had three children, my mother, Mary, Elizabeth, who married John L. McLaurin, of Richmond County, N. C., and one son, Philip P. who moved West and reared a family. After the death of Annie, he, my grandfather, married a widow McCall, of Alabama, and by her had one daughter, Achsah, who married Hiram McLemore and reared a family. Of this I know but little.

June 25, 1870 J. H. Hamer

William Hamer, my grandfather's oldest son, married a Miss (Curganey—F.H.H.) Thomas, the next oldest son married a Miss Chairs (Cheairs—F.H.H.) of Anson County, North Carolina and moved to Mississippi. Daniel married a Miss Curtis of Anson County, N. C., lived and died in Marlboro County, S. C. Henry C. went West and married. Robert C. married Mary Bethea of Marion County, S. C., Alfred married a Miss Wallace of Anson County, N. C., Philip married a Miss Thomas of Marlboro County, S. C., Lewis M. married a Miss Thomas of Marlboro County, S C. The oldest daughter, Rachel, married a Mr. Curtis of N. C., Mary married a Mr. Thomas of S. C., Martha married a Mr. Nichols of S. C., Ann married a Mr. Robertson of S. C. and went West, Charlotte married James Willis, and Sarah married Dr. John Roland of Robeson County, N. C. The two last named daughters left no families, all the others left large families scattered through all the Southern States. The names of the children of my Uncles and Aunts have escaped memory. Some of them I have never known. Others I know were—(Could not read F.H.H.)

They have all done well and all were honorable, upright men, and every one of my Uncles amassed (illegible F.H.H.) fortunes before the war but lost of their earning at the close of the War.

(No date) J. H. Hamer

My father was born in Marlboro District, S. C. Oct. 12, 1801. Was married to Mary Bethea Jany. 1830. Moved to Marion District the same year. Robert Cochran Hamer and Mary Bethea had five children, the eldest, Tristram Bethea, died at seventeen years of age. Mary, the youngest child, died an infant. My mother died January 12, 1840. My father never married after her death. He died in 1878, in the 78th year of his age. I wish I knew more about my relatives than I do.

(No date F.H.H.) J. H. Hamer

My father left, when he died, three children, two sons and one daughter. John H. Hamer, the oldest living son married Missouri Bethea, daughter of William S. and Sarah Ann Bethea. To them was born one son, Missouri Robert, at whose birth the mother died and was buried at Bethea Grave Yard on Buck Swamp. I then married Sarah Alice Richardson. By this marriage there were five children, Edwin Richardson, Mary Elizabeth, Tristram Bethea, Oriana Wilson, John Harrington. Missouri married May Lee Townsand of Robeson County, N. C., Edwin married Julia Berry, Mary E. married Neill A. Berry, Oriana Wilson married Lawrence A. Manning; T. B. Hamer, married Mary Emma Verbick, of Texas.

My sister, Betsy Ann, married John S. Thompson of Robeson County, N. C. By this marriage she had three children: Mary Susan, who married Lewis R. Hamer, and died, leaving two children, the youngest, Alice, died soon after the mother.

Her oldest son, (sister Betsy's) Tristram, Bethea, married Flora Bethea, left two sons, Frank and Tristram B. John, second son, married Annie Smith of Alabama. Her husband, John S. Thompson, died Petersburg, Va. in 1863 or 1864 of Pneumonia. She afterwards married Lemuel Thompson of N. C. By this marriage she had several children all died young except Lucy, who married R. P. Stackhouse, Robert C. H. who married a Miss Woody of Marlboro County, S. C., the next oldest, Hugh, died at seventeen years old. Charlotte Willis, the youngest daughter, is unmarried at this time, Oct. 10, 1894.

My youngest brother, Robert Pickett Hamer, married Sarah McCall of Darlington County, S. C. They have living at this time nine children, Lizzie who married T. B. Stackhouse, Robert Pickett married Janie McCallum, William M., Mary Bethea, James Willis, Brooks, Maude, Norma, and Sadie. The last seven named are unmarried at this time, Oct. 10, 1894.

LETTERS

Columbia, S. C.
December 14th, 1877.

Mr. A. M. Kimbrough and Wife (1211d)
Dear Relatives,

I received this day your letter of the 11inst.,·I was indeed glad to get it and to hear from you again, and I will answer you immediately. I will answer your inquiries as far as I am able. Your Grandfather William Hamer, was born Mar. 22, 1792 and died Sept. 2nd, 1877. He had been a man of remarkably good health the most of his life, and had been active and able to get about and attend to his business until this year, during the month of May. He told me he was taken with a cold, and was not well any more. When he commenced to decline he failed very fast. Dropsy of the chest I presume was what ailed Him. He was not confined to his bed only for a day or so, He had for sometime previous to his death been aware that he would not live long and expressed a willingness to die, and I hope he set his house in order. Nancy his daughter has been dead several years; There are three daughters now living in this country, Frances, Elizabeth and Charlotte. Frances as you are aware has never married. Elizabeth has been a Widow for several years. She has one daughter who is now married to Mr. Ebenezer Fletcher and they have one child. Charlotte is the wife of Mr. George Easterling, she has been the mother of several children but only one is now living, a son named Lawrence and who is nearly grown. Thomas C. Hamer, a brother of John G. has one son only named James C. Hamer, rather promising boy. David Hamer the son of Charles, is now living with his Aunt Charlotte—David is a robust healthy young man and has some smartness and I am of the opinion if he will conduct himself well he will make a smart man, he is disposed to be somewhat wild, he is not grown. I have given the names of these persons so that you may write to them if you wish, a letter addressed to any of them at Bennettsville would reach them.

I am sorry to learn of the death of Thomas Hamer, I had not heard it before. I am pleased to hear that his children are doing so well. Your connections in this country are very numerous. All the descendants of my father John H. Hamer, a native of South Carolina and who died in 1842, in the 77th year of his age, Your grandfather was the oldest child. There were in all nine sons and five daughters, all lived to be grown and married. Four sons are now living, Henry C., in Georgia, whom I presume you know. Robert C., both own brothers of William, your grandfather, and Rev. Lewis M. Hamer of the South Carolina Conference and my self the only two of my father's last marriage; of the daughters, Martha Nichols of N. C., Sarah Rowland and Charlotte Willis are the only ones living. Sister Sarah is a widow and has no children. Charlotte has no children, never had any, Martha Nichols has three children living, all doing well, Sister Sarah lives with Charlotte Willis, both are independent, Bro Lewis has six children living, three married, I have nine children living, five sons and four daughters. Two of my daughters are married. There are many, most the children of Bro. Daniel, Alfred, and Sister Mary in this country, and the Children of Bro. Thomas and Bro. James in the State of Miss. You see by this there is a large family connection and I am glad to say that most of them are doing well. I have heard nothing of Bro. Henry C. Hamer in Ga., for sometime, the last I heard from him he was in poor health, and I expect in limited circumstances. I have written you this long letter about some of your relatives whom you have never seen or perhaps never heard of before. I shall want to hear from you in reference to your own family and also in reference to the balance of the John G. Hamer's family and where they are living and getting along. I feel an interest in the welfare of all my relatives wherever they are, I will be here only for a few days longer, but will have to come back for a short time about the middle of Feb., for perhaps two or three weeks.

Bennettsville P. O., in Marlborough County is now my regular Post Office, I shall be pleased to hear from you as often as you can write.

Yours truly and sincerely,
P. M. Hamer (1218)

Note: P. M. Hamer (1218) 8th son of John Hicks and Nancy Cochran Hamer.

Mrs. T. C. Hamer
Bennettsville, S. C.

Dear Cousin:

Your letter to Mr. Bob Shippey, Parrott, Ga. was sent to me to reply. This I will try to do with my left hand as I cannot use my right hand and my typewriter is out of commission. I am Mrs. John Anthony, my maiden name was Sarah Jane Hamer, a daughter of Thomas G. Hamer and Sarah Jane Lakey, his wife and my mother. My Father Thomas G. Hamer was a son of John Hamer—his Father, I think was Philip Hamer. (See Note). We received money from his estate after the death of my Father. My Father died 45 years ago. My mother died 14 years ago, made her home with me, leaving two daughters, myself and my sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Lee Crouch. She is now with her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Whitchard, Blakely, Ga.

My Father's brothers were Billie, George, Charlie and Lonie. His sisters Mrs. Mattie Shippey, Mrs. Nancy Kimbrough, Mrs. Carrie Cunningham, Mrs. Lizzie Goins. (All deceased) but Uncle Billie. I visited him last summer in Columbus, Ga. He lives with his son, Nolon Hamer and he is paralized. T. Z. Hamer, Gasden, Eve and Fannie are children of Uncle George Hamer. Lula Lane and Minnie all dead. The Hamers came from S. C. and I am sure we are kin. Mrs. Crouch has three sons in Dawson, Ga., Jim, Ray and Cliff Crouch. Ray works in Post Office, Cliff has charge of the Bottling works and Jim runs a Market.

I only have one son Thomas Hamer Anthony, he is Post Master in this town. I was also Postmaster for 24 years. I am 72 years old and a cripple. Walk with a crutch and stick. Am very feeble and need help very much, Hospital bills, Dr. Bills, and Drug bills have ruined me.

Our relative has it wrong, his mother Nancy, my Father's sister, was a daughter of John Hamer, my grandfather. My grandmother was a Cummings. Billie and George Hamer married Parkers. Charlie married a Slayton. I cannot tell who the others married. My son Hamer Anthony married Inez Cheney, born to them seven children, three dead and four living. His daughter, Sarah E. Anthony married a Mr. Bennie Melton has one daughter 6 months old named Madaline. Three sons living Earnest Hamer, Ford Dickinson, and Lee Anthony. The boys ages 18—17—12 and daughter 19. My son looks very much like my Father in size and weight about 250 or 240 pounds.

I trust you can read this left hand letter and this about all I can tell you about the Hamer family. I have just written the history of the Anthony family for a cousin in La. Will be glad to give any other information I can.

With love and best wishes,
Your cousin
S. J. Anthony (121111a)
(Sarah Jane Hamer Anthony—F.H.H.)
Shellman, Ga.

Note: Her Father's Father was not Philip but he was William Hamer the 1st son of John Hicks Hamer a half brother to Philip Hamer and Philip Hamer settled the Estate of William Hamer (12111) therefore he sent money to Sara Jane's family. (F.H.H.)

Mrs. Tom C. Hamer
Dear Cousin:

Your letter of the second received here after being forwarded me several points. I am located here for the winter buying and shipping vegetables.

Now in regards to my mother and who her parents were will say I am afraid I can't give you what you want. Will start by saying her father was named Thomas Hamer. I can't remember her mother's name just now. All the old records are at Center Hill. Mother has been dead 10 years, this coming Jan. 24 she was 83 the 22nd and died 24th.

My father was Archie Kimbrough. There were eleven children names as follows—Henry, Maggie & Carrie (twins), Bessie, Minnie, James, Jesse, Willie, Divid, (myself Alonzo) and Lovick. There are only four of us living—Minnie Price, David, (myself, and Lovick). All at Center Hill.

Mother had three sisters, Aunt Mattie Shippey, Carrie Cunningham, Aunt Lizzie Goings all dead. Her brothers Collin, William, George, Alonzo, and Charlie. They are all dead. Their children are in Georgia if you will write Robt. Shippey at Parrott, Georgia He can give you all the information you want, I think.

I have quite a few old letters that Uncle Philip Hamer of Bennettsville wrote her some are 50 years old and he always address my mother as his niece. I do not known if she were his great niece or not can't say. I will try and get one of the old letters and send you. But you must surely send it back to me after you read it. I don't want to loose it.

I am indeed sorry I can't give you a better connection of my family but I have done the best I can at present. I will write to Center Hill and get one of the old letters and send it to you and anything I may think of later will write you about it. Many thanks for the invitation to visit you. I may come by and see you some time in the summer.

You will please excuse poor writing I have a bad hand and it will not behave when writing.

Will close with very kindest regards to you and family.

Your Cousin

Cousin Delia

Sept 1st 1875

Very often since I came home have I thought of fulfilling my promise to you, "that I would write you", but I have been quite busy and have neglected to do so until now. I have nothing very interesting to write you, our family are all well at this time. Mother is in as good health as she has been for a long time. Uncle Billie is getting along very well. David is going to school to an excellent teacher. I hope he will improve the time, he seems well satisfied and I hope he may continue to be; I think he is a great satisfaction to his grandfather.

The Hamers though numerous and too tedious to mention are generally well and getting on as well as any body these hard times. There has been no marriage not given in marriage among any of them since I saw you. I begin to think it high time for some of us to set a good example or there will be a lot of old bachelors among us. We have had a very pleasant time going to picnic, etc. occasionally; it was so pleasant to get off from work sometimes.

Excuse a short letter. Mother and Delilah send their love to you. Write soon and let us hear from you.

Your cousin
Thos. R. Hamer

Mrs. Fannie C. Hamer,
Dear Cousin:

Your letter came to hand in due time and was gladly rec'd. I have no news of impt to write. We are all well as common. Aunt Sallie Rolling[1] is in very bad health, I think she has dropsy. She has been in bad health all this year. You wanted to know if Ma and I lived together yet. I am staying with her yet. I am not married yet. C in my name stands for Colvin after my uncle Colvin Hamer[2]. We are having very pretty weather now for gathering cotton but the crop was cut short from the Aug. drought. We did not have rain in Aug for 21 days. I rec'd a postal from David[3] last Friday. He wrote me that he was going to send me his picture now soon. I am glad to hear from him at any time and would be glad to see him but he don't speak of coming out here. I don't think one place can hold him long at the time. I will send you my Photo. Tell cousin Lizzie[4] that I would send her one if I had any more on hand and will send her one when I can. I would be glad to get one of her pictures and any of my connection out there. I want you and Familys I would like very much to see that little fellow that you spoke of. Tell uncle Seth[5] that I will write to him soon. And tell him to write to me as soon as he can. It would be a bad chance for me to go to see you this winter but I would be glad to go if I could. I am not bothered much with whiskey myself. But we do have some (drinking). But I can't say much about tobacco for I like it very well. Write soon and give the news.

Please excuse mistakes and bad writing

My dear daughter

Your letter dated July 28th received yesterday. You state that you wrote me before but I never received the letter. The last time I wrote you I sent you a twenty dollar bill for the benefit of my grand-children and as you have not acknowledged the receipt of it do not know whether you received it. The letter containing the money was registered and the receipt was signed at Lagrange by a man named Smith. Probably you acknowledged the receipt of the money in the letter I failed to get.

We are all as well as common. My health is only tolerable I feel old and frail and it worries me to go about and the consequence is that I remain at home most of the time and lead a lonesome and desolate life.

I have a fair provision crop but the dry weather has caused the crops generally in this section to be short.

There is no one living with me but my daughter Francis (1211a) and I expect to remain alone the balance of my life. I would like very much to visit you but it is to much of an undertaking for me that it is doubtful if I ever attempt it.

If you can spare my little grand-son David L. (121161) I would like to have him. He would be a great deal of company for me. Consider about it and write me and I will make arrangements to get him and will do the best part by him I can.

Our connection as far as I know are all well.

Hoping this will find you well

I remain

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
My dear daughter

I received your letter day before yesterday dated August 30th and I also got your other letter dated July 4th. I was glad to hear from you once more but I am very sorry to hear that you are still in feeble health. My own health is not good. I am able to be up the most of the time. My daughters are in usual health and the most of the connections and friends in this neighborhood. There is some sickness here most chill and fever. Crawford Easterling and his wife and two children have been down with fever. I think they are better.

I received intelligence that Brother James who lived in Miss died July 13 1873. I will also inform you of the death of Mrs. Sallie Covington, wife of old man Thomas Covington.

We have had an abundance of rain also here, especially in August and they were generally heavy rains. The low places have filled with water. I hardly know what to say about the crops, old cotton will do better than the young. The latter has suffered more from the wet. There is some very good corn crops also where they were well cultivated. I suppose the crop of cotton and corn will be nearly an average one.

I shall be anxious to hear from you again, and try and answer this as soon as you can or have it done. And if I never see you again, I wish you well. If you should not live, I have concluded to take David and Frances and will try to do the best I can for them.

Your affectionate father

Mrs. F. C. Hall
My dear daughter,

I received your letter sometime since. And I should have answered you sooner but as you know I am old and afflicted and nervous until I write very little. I was glad to hear from and especially to hear of the improvement in your health. I am glad to hear from you anytime and hope you will continue to write me as often as you can. I am so far as health is concerned about as common the most of the time I am up. I suffer some with colic. The relatives and friends are generally well as far as I know. Charlotte Easterling has a daughter some three weeks old, both are doing as well as could be expected. Elizabeth Easterling and Anna Jane are living at their old place and are pretty desolate yet I suppose are doing about as well as could be expected. Tommys son James is growing finely and I think is rather a promising boy. Frances is with me and about as usual. Some of my neighbors are in feeble health. Mary Bolton has been for some time and old man Samuel Easterling and David Easterling are in very feeble health and declining very fast.

We have had a great deal of wet and cold weathers, farmers are rather backward in consequence of it. The prospect yet for a fruit crop is good. The times are hard with the poor and Colored people. Money and provisions scarce, labor is more plentiful though than last year.

I do not know that I have much of interest to write you. I should be glad to see you and the children and I did think that I would pay you a visit but so far I have not seen a chance to do so and it may be doubtful if I ever do. But if I do not see you any more. My wish is that you and the family may do well.

I must close my letter. You wished to know Seth's Post Office, Mountain Hill, Ga.

I am trying to make some crop again this year and I think I have provisions enough for this year.

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece

I write you this letter informing you of the death of Bro. Wm. Hamer and in the will he made, he left you a legacy of fifty dollars to you which you can get at any time.

In his will he also left David and Frances your son and daughter three hundred dollars between them. The money going to David and Frances can only be paid to their guardian.

I would have written you sooner but I thought that David had done so which I requested him to do; but a short time since he informed that he had not written to you about it. (He had written about the death but not the will) Frances Hamer and Elizabeth Easterling are the Exec'r of the will. At their request I consented to assist them in making their settlements, and if you authorize me to do so I can send you the fifty dollars whenever you say so. If you write me, direct your letter to Columbia, S. C. as I shall expect to go on there next week and may have to remain there a month.

David is still here, but I think he is undecided what to do. He now speaks of leaving and going to Florence to work in the Machine Shop. I advised him to stay with his aunt Frances as she was willing to employ him, but he is like a great many young persons, hardly know what is best. David is strong and healthy and if he would take care, is capable of making a smart man, has a good mind, writes for his chance a good hand. I have tried to advise David and feel an interest in his welfare as I am aware of his present situation. I hope he may do well, settle down to some business and not into a roving disposition which injures so many young men.

I hope this will reach you in usual health, also your husband and daughter. The relatives and friends of this county are generally well. I am in common health and also my family.

I shall expect to hear from you soon.

Yours truly
P. M. Hamer (1218)

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece:

I received your letter of the 21st inst. this morning and I was glad to hear from you and that you and family are all in common health.

I am well at this time. I left home the first of last week and have had no news yet from my family. All were well when I left home. David was with his aunt Frances at the old place and I think at that time he and she were making arrangements for him to remain there.

I am ready to send your money to you and expected to have done so this morning. I went to the Post Master here to get a post office order to send to you as I did to Seth Hamer and the children of John G. Hamer but I could not get one for La Grange. He could have given me an order at West Point and another post office in the county; but unless I know that those offices were not too far I thought I would get further advice. This is the safest way I could send money, unless it was by Express and then I do not know how far you are from an Express Office.

Please write me at once how I shall send it and to what point. I could address the money and send it direct to La Grange but it might misscarry or I could send you a check for it.

I can hardly say about acting as guardian for Frances. I am so far from her, I will reflect more about it. Her money ought to be in the bank of some one so that the interest will accumulate, etc., instead of remaining idle.

Let me hear from you soon. The next time I write I will write more and give you the purport of the will. Bro. Robt. C. Hamer is in feeble health.
You direct your letter to Columbia as I shall be here some time.

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece

I received your letter this morning and I now reply. You may look for your Post Office order which I will send right to West Point. I am well as usual and the rest of the relatives that I have heard from lately. Bro

Robert died on friday the 25th of Jany and was buried on Sunday at Little Rock. I was telegraphed and went up and remained home Sunday and Monday. David I heard had set in with his aunt Frances, and I think it is a good arrangement for David. I hope that David will do well. I have tried to encourage him all I could and told him I would advise him anytime.

I was glad to hear that Frances had joined the church. I am always pleased to see the young joining the church and trying to lead pious lives. David was a mourner at Beauty Spot at the meeting held there last year, and I was hopeful he would join the church.

I will enclose a receipt with the order which you will please date and sign and send to me at this place if you write soon, as I expect to be here some two or three weeks yet. After that write to me at Bennettsville, I shall be glad to hear from you as often as you can write.

The most of the relatives are getting along tolerably well. My youngest child Lula is nearly grown, though she is only fourteen in July, she is now about as tall as her mother. Catey is married to Lewis Easterling. Della has had five children, lost one Has three sons and one daughter.

Write to me soon. And write to David as often as you can, and encourage him to be as steady as he can. If David will take the right start, he will make a smart man.

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece

I got your letter on yesterday and will answer it now. I was sorry to hear that William had been sick, I hope that he will recover soon. I received your letter also enclosing the receipt, and I should have answered you sooner. I have been almost sick myself lately I had a very severe cold. David is living with his aunt Frances and so far as I hear is getting along very well. I told him he must be sure and write to you, and I hope he has.

The money that is due David and Frances, I thought had better be drawing some interest anyhow, and as you had asked me to act as guardian for Frances. I made an arrangement with Frances and Elizabeth so that it is drawing interest for the children. David has not said anything to me about his part and I do not know what he intends to do. He had better select a guardian also. It will it is true cost a little to have one appointed. If you still request and it is the wish of Frances I will act as her guardian and try and do the best for her I can, being guardian though is a very responsible position. I want them to do well and if I can assist them any way, I am willing to do so. We are all as well as common so are the relatives generally. Sister Charlotte Willis is complaining some I saw her and Sallie on yesterday. There is nothing new we have had a good rain which was badly needed. I hope this letter will find you all well.

Affectionately your uncle

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece,

As it has been sometime since I wrote to you I will write you a short letter today. I am well as common and my family were well when I left home about a week since. The relatives and friends are well as far as I know. I suppose David has told you the most of the news from here. I was sorry David left here just when he did. He and his aunt Frances had made a farm together and David was to have one half. And was to pay half of the expenses so I learn. As I am administrator of the Estate of Frances it will hinder me some in settling up the estate unless I knew precisely what the expenses were. Perhaps David has an account with him, and if so, I would be glad for him to send me all the information he can give me in relation to the trade between him and his aunt Frances. And an account of the expenses of making and gathering the crop.

You wrote me last winter that you wished me to act as guardian for Frances. I gave my note Elizabeth Easterling and Frances Hamer for the three hundred dollars that was due David and Frances. I did this so that the legacy due them might be drawing some interest. This I thought was the best for them, the money could have been paid over to Probate Judge but in his hands, they could get no interest on the money.

A guardian can be appointed which will not cost more than six dollars, so I am informed by our Probate Judge. If Frances is over twelve years of age, and if she is, and wishes me to act as guardian for her, I will do so, and she can let me know. She and David will also be entitled to their part of their aunt Frances' Estate.

I shall be glad to hear from you, if you write soon direct to this place Columbia. If you do not write until after Christmas, send the letter to Bennettsville.

Your uncle

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece

I received your letter a few days since, and I am sorry to learn from it that your health is still feeble, and I was sorry that you could not use the draft I sent. I paid Seth Hamer his part of Frances Estate, by draft thinking it was about the safest and cheapest way of sending a small amount. I also paid off the heirs of John G. Hamer the same way and all have received their part except Mr. Kimbrough I had a letter from him a few days since saying he had not got my letter. I expect on Monday I shall go to Bennettsville, today is Friday. And I will send the ten dollars in a registered letter. You made inquiry about Nancy she is still at home and her mother would be almost broken up without her help. Della has four children living three sons, one daughter; lost one little daughter named Kitty.

We are all today in usual health. Kitty keeps in common health I do not think she is quite as fleshy as she has been. My daughter Caty has no children yet.

Charlotte Easterling has been sick but I think she is now about well. Elizabeth and family are well. I saw Ebenezer Fletcher yesterday. They have built a good house on the road and it is just now finished. And I think they are moving into it, it is about opposite the old house.

I do not know when I shall see young Robert P. Hamer (12153) but when I do, I will try and mention your matter to him. I am a little surprised myself that Bro Robert never paid you the five dollars, he must certainly have forgotten it as he is fully able and I always thought very prompt. He has left his children perfectly independent. Young Robert is doing well. Sister Sallie was here last week, she is in common health so is Charlotte. I hope you will improve in health. You may look for the other letter in some three or four days.

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece

I received your letter a few days since and I will write you today. I am sorry to hear from your letter that you are still in feeble health.

I trust that your health will improve. At all events we must be patient and submissive under the hand of affliction and put our trust in Him who rules and governs all. Many of our friends and relatives are gone and sooner or later we will all be gone. The great business of life is to prepare for that event.

We are now all as well as common and I believe the relatives and friends are all in common health. Sister Sallie and Charlotte enjoy about as good health as could be expected for persons of their age. My wife enjoys very good health and the children are all healthy and all of them about grown. Lula the youngest born in 1864 while I was in Virginia is about as tall as her mother. Philip is grown and is going to school, Lula is going to school also. I enclose a draft for ten dollars for Frances which is the interest for one year for the $150.00 which is in my hands for her from the estate of her grandfather. I have also in hand $111.00 from the estate of her aunt Frances for her. I qualified as her guardian on Monday last. I also enclose a receipt for ten dollars and you and Frances can both sign it and send it to me when you next write.

I forwarded your Bible the first of Feby. and I hope you have got it before this time.

I have heard from Seth Hamer and John's family lately. All are well except Carrie Cunningham and Mary Goins, they were sick or had been but were better. One of the Shippey's daughters had lately married.

Mrs. Cordelia Hall
Dear Niece,

I think you wrote me last and I should have written to you sooner. I was sorry to hear from your last letter that your health was not much better. We are all as well as common. Sister Sallie has been quite unwell but is better. Charlotte is not looking well, they have both reduced in flesh right smart. Sister Martha is now at my place. She is about as usual. Elizabeth and Charlotte both well and their families. Old Mrs. Barrow died some month or more since. Mollie Bolton as was dec'd this year. She left four little children. Her relatives have taken the children. The health of our country I think has been generally good. I had a letter from Bro Council in your state. He says he is very feeble and did not expect to live long. I also heard from Mr. Kimbrough lately, all well at that time, his oldest son by his present wife is married, his Post Office is Centreville, Miss.

The crops in my section are very good. We have no reason to complain. We have needed rain some but I do not think our crops suffered. Might have been a little better with more rain.

If Frances at any time is in need of any little money let me know and I will send her some occasionally. It would be better for her not to use any of her money more than the interest, but if she should be in need let me know.

I hope by this time your health has improved. We shall have no Camp Meeting on our circuit this year. Wm Breeden is now having some good protracted Meetings on our circuit. We have of late had some good rains and the crops are growing well. Write soon.

Mrs. Fannie Hamer,
Dear Niece,

I got your letter a few days since and sympathize with you for the loss of your babe. In this life we have a mixed cup, joys and sorrows, but in every condition of life we must trust in Divine help, and do the best we can, and we will get along well, and all will be well in the end. My family and the friends and relatives are generally in common health. There has been some marrying among our kindred James Hamers son Wm and daughter Annie both married lately and I think have done well. There has been more marriages among the young than in several winters I think. We had a good snow for the first last Saturday night.

The crop you can say to Seth was very good with us. Corn and cotton on my farm as good as last year or perhaps a little better. I heard from one of Bro. Council's daughters a letter saying her mother was dead and that Council was low down. I did intend to send you some twenty or thirty dollars, getting your letter asking for all. I am at a loss what to say, if you were to live, I am certain there would be no trouble hereafter, in the event of your death, some of your brothers might sue me for a settlement. It will not be long now before you are of age, I know you need it and I would gladly pay it over if the law would justify me. The only safe way to advance it to you would be for you and William and Seth to give me a note for it. And they would hardly be willing to that. If you want some twenty or thirty dollars now, I will send it as you may direct.

I take pleasure Dear Mother of writing to let you know that I am well at this time present and hoping you are experiencing the same pleasure.

I have no news to write you of importance except Grand Father is dead. He died on Sunday the second (2) of September 1877. He was taken on Thursday night and died Sunday A. M. about eleven o'clock.

As for me I do not know whether I will stay or not. I may stay about here or may come out there and may go to Texas this fall; but if I do I will come by and stay some time with you and you will hear from me some time soon.

Mr. J. P. Hamer;

Dear Sir, Your great grand Father William Hamer, came from the State of Maryland to Anson County, North Carolina, here he married a lady whose maiden name was Hicks (I think Frances Hicks). They had two sons John H. your grand Father, and William. William never married, died in Georgia. There were three daughters—Frances who married James Ratcliff, Sarah who married Elijah Curtis and I think Susan who married Philip May.

About the year 1791. Your grand Father, John H. Hamer came to Marlboro County and married Ann Cochran. I am not sure that he first settled on the place belonging to you. I have an idea that has been received by tradition, that he lived a few years somewhere towards, on or near, the Aaron Breedin plantation, now owned by Capt. P. L. Breedin.

Your great grand Father, William Hamer was a Soldier in the Revolutionary war, and performed hard services, according to the testimony of your grand Father.

I cannot trace him back any farther than when he came from Maryland, His ancestors undoubtedly came from England. The Hamers are of pure English Descent.

On Our other side, the Thomases are of a Welsh descent. The first of the name of Thomas of whom we know anything came from Wales.

Yours very truly
Lewis M. Hamer

My dear Mrs. Hamer:

Mr. Johnston was very much interested in your letter, but we are sorry to say that through General Hamers line your children cannot descend, his two sons died in early manhood and never married. Gen. Thomas L. Hamer married Lydia Bruce Higgens of Va. in 1825 her father, Col Robert Higgins of the Revolution went to Ohio where he had large land grants. Gen. Hamer had six children, four daughters and two sons. His oldest child and daughter Malvina Hamer married Judge Sanders Walker Johnston of Ky. She was born 1826. Ophelia Hamer died young. Mary Hamer married Arthur Thornton, Thomas Hamer died before he was 30 years old and never married. George Washington Hamer died when he was 24 years old and never married. Isabel Hamer married William H. Louden.

After his wife's death and his children were grown, Gen. Hamer married again Katharine Johnston, a sister of his son in law, Judge S. W. Johnston, (My husband's aunt and also his step grandmother). By this marriage Gen. Hamer did not have any Children, all the descendants of Gen Hamer came from his three daughters, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Louden. My husband is the eldest grandson and name sake of Gen. Hamer and the sword you wrote about was in my husbands home till his mother died and he went to college then it was lent to be taken care of to his aunt, Mrs. Londen, but she would not give it back when my husband married and he would not go to law over the matter but if our son had lived we would have gone to the courts with the matter. Mr. Johnston has the buttons that were on his grandfather's uniform. We also have letters that he wrote to his daughter my husband's mother from Mexico. Gen Hamer was not killed but died of stomach trouble in , Mexico. My husband was appointed by President Grant to West Point but Mr. Johnston on account of his eyes could not pass the physicial examination. Gen. Grant did this for Gen. Hamer's grandson.

Cordially yours

My dear Madam:

You are speaking in your letter of June 22 of a celebrated book by Ralph Hamer. The book was printed in 1615. I regret to say that we do not have a copy of the first edition in the Virginia State Library. There are only three copies of this first edition in America that I know of. One is in the John Carter Brown Library, another in the Boston Public Library, and the third in the New York Public Library. The book was, however, reprinted in 1860, and of that reprint we have a copy. There is nothing in it that would be of any special interest to you. It is merely an account of the Colony of Virginia up to the 18th of June 1614. It does not give any genealogical information.

As for your second question, I advise you to write to the Rev. Z. A. Farland, 915 W. Grace Street, Richmond, Virginia. I am

GENEALOGICAL RECORDS OF THE HAMERS

INTRODUCTION

The only (Hamer-Haymer) indexed in the Colonial and State Records of North Carolina are John and James.

John Hamer flourished in that part of Bladen County which in 1749 became Anson County which until 1790 included Richmond and its offspring Scotland County. In November 1744, he asked for a grant of 100 acres in Bladen County, and was granted the 100 in Bladen County March 15, 1745, 300 acres in Anson County on April 3, 1750, and 170 acres in Anson County September 29, 1750. In 1745 an act concerning commissioners to repair roads, bridges, etc., in Bladen County, John Hamer was one of the appointed commissioners of roads for the Pee Dee District. The part of Bladen County which became Anson County. He was appointed Sheriff of Anson County September 30, 1748 before its organization. He was in the Assembly of Providence of North Carolina from Anson County, December 1757. His claims for 75 pounds, 14 shillings and 9 pence for pay as Captain for himself and Company was allowed April 1760. He was Justice of Peace in Anson County 1762. (See K.F. p 2245).

In the records of Anson County is a deed from John Hamer to William Hamer who remained in Anson County.

It is quite evident that John Hamer removed from Anson County to Craven County between 1762 and 1765 and he conveyed his lands in Anson County to William Hamer. This creates the idea that John Hamer was the father of William Hamer. It is recorded in William Hamer's Bible, now owned by Mrs. J. T. Hooker, Hamer, S. C. Mrs. L. A. Manning and daughters gave it to her.

The military service of the Hamers has been a long and distinguished one. Every American War has had its representatives, and all of them have served well, some making the supreme sacrifice.

Looking over the Hamers, it seems that many have been planters of great success, while there has been considerable tendency towards the medical profession. We find this particularly true in the descendants of Alfred Hamer 1217; however, this is also edified in other branches of the family. The boys being doctors in various fields and the girls nurses and technicians.

Hamers are to be found among prominent Lawyers, Ministers, Bankers, Educators, Businessmen and Merchants. In a large number they love "Mother Earth," for even in other professional fields they also have their small or large farms on the side.

The name is found among the politicians of our country, serving as The Speaker of the House, Legislators, Senators, Commissioners, Mayors and on all boards of service they are well represented.

One of the strongest characteristics of the Hamers is the love of their home and family. Just glance to the children of John Hicks Hamer and you will find this to be true, for they were perfect hosts and hostesses on all occasions. This trait is to be found among the descendants of the present day.

John Hamer—1

Records show that John Hamer lived in Bladen County, North Carolina, in 1744 and in Newbern, North Carolina 1750, then in Craven County, North Carolina 1762 to 1765. 12116 HAMER, CHARLES H., 6th son of Sq. Bill and Unicy Hamer, born 14 November 1833, Marlboro County, S. C., died 5 or 6 of February 1865, in Federal Prison, Elmira, N. Y., married 20 February 1859, in Loachapoka, Lee County, Ala. by Rev. Geo. Chatfield to Mrs. Frances Barnes Hall (widow), born 22 April 1836, died 2 February 1880, in Alabama. (See T. H. M. C. pg. 212).

Charles Hamer and his brother, James R. (12114) with others were captured at Fort Fisher, N. C. 15 January 1865. Charlie and perhaps James had measles and died in prision 5 February 1865. It has been said that they died the same day. An uncle, Sandy Suther, by marriage of Frances Hamer Hamer, was in the prison with her father, Charlie Hamer, and Uncle Jim. He, Sandy, said that Charlie and James were made to stand in snow a foot deep for hours at a time bare-footed because they were from South Carolina. He, Sandy, said the only thing that kept him alive was that he was able to get to the slop tub and fish out crumbs to eat.

While Charlie was in the service, Frances and two children, David and Frances, lived with William Hamer—1211, in Marlboro County, S. C. On 24 March 1868, she with the two children left for Ala. with an affidavit to get her through to her home.

Frances Cordelia Barnes, first married on 13 June 1854 in West Point, Ga., by Rev. W. P. Foote to Robert C. Hall who was born 10 December 1825 and died 18 September 1856 while traveling on a sail-ship for his health, being becalmed he was buried in the Gulf of Mexico. She begged them not to bury him there but the Captain of the sail-ship said that they were obliged to do so.

Frances Cordelia Barnes Hall Hamer married the third time 27 June 1870 to Charlie Hall. (Think a kinsman of Robert Hall). They had one daughter Ella Josephine Hall, born 18 August 1871.

121161 HAMER, DAVID born 8 December 1859, Loachapoka, Lee County, Ala., died about 1932, Dallas, Texas. He spent quite a bit of his time in S. C. with his aunts, uncles and grandfather, but never seemed to settle to anything special. Loved to travel from place to place. Think he was buried by 1st wife in , Texas. Know nothing of his descendants. They must be in Texas.

1212 HAMER, THOMAS COCHRAN (son of John Hicks and Nancy Cochran Hamer) born 6 October 1793—date from Old Hamer Bible—died 10 February 1874, married 23 September 1821 to Sarah Cheairs of Anson County, N. C., born 13 November 1805, died 7 June 1856, (daughter of Benjamin Cheairs). They moved in 1841 to Benton County, Mississippi and settled on a beautiful site about fifteen miles from Holly Springs. Here the land was new and fertile, the plantation produced such abundant corn crops that it was known as Egypt. Planters came from far and near to purchase the product.

It is said that Thomas was a large slave owner, having at one time over a hundred slaves. He gave to each child when married fifteen or twenty slaves and a large section of land.

Near the village of Salem, Miss. on top of Hamer Mountain stood his beautiful home and part of it was still standing many years ago, perhaps some parts still remain—1946.

"In your minds eye you can see the stately columns, the lovely flowers and shrubbery, the winding driveway, with its avenue of cedars, the silver poplar trees, and the sunken garden aglow with blossoms. You can hear the slaves singing as they homeward come after the plowing is finished. At the foot of the hill are the white-washed negro cabins and miles of clear cotton fields. At the edge of the hill rises the virgin forest dark and cool even in the hottest day."

Thomas Hamer was an abundant provider, a loving father and a devoted husband. Within the home was love, play and laughter, when at eventide the family would all be gathered together. They were all members of the Methodist Church. Their son, Benjamin Cheairs, a strong fellow, went to Virginia to school and died there. The home was filled with sadness when the news came of his passing. His body was brought to the home he loved so dearly and was laid to rest near it.

When Thomas C. and Sallie Hamer came to Mississippi they had eight children, then two more were born in Mississippi.

After the death of Sallie Cheairs Hamer, Thomas C. Hamer married Mrs. Sallie Scott Mask, who was a widow and had a daughter, Sallie Mask.

Thomas C. Hamer is buried in the Cemetery at Holly Springs, Miss.

12121 HAMER, JAMES GILLISPIE born 8 September 1825, died 3 July 1905, buried Miss., married 26 or 4 March 1854, to Sarah Caroline Matthews, born , died . (She was the beautiful daughter of Gov. Joe Warren Matthews of Miss. 1847). James G. settled in the Northern part of Benton County, Mississippi near Michigan City. There he built a lovely home that was one of the outstanding places of that time. His wife loved beautiful flowers and the place in the Springtime was aglow with all kinds of flowers. Mrs. Mary Hamer McKenzie, a granddaughter, resides at the old home and she endeavors to keep the place as her ancestors did.

And Etta May Hamer McKenzie—121211b

James G. Hamer was elected to represent Tippah County in the Mississippi Legislature for two years. Through his efforts the State University was located at Oxford. When the War between the States broke out, he volunteered and organized Company H., 19th Mississippi Regiment at Salem, Mississippi. He was a Colonel in the war, taking part in the first and the second Manassas, Harrisburg and numerous other major and minor engagements. He served from the start of the war to the finish of it, surrendering at Gainesville, Alabama on April 1865. He returned to his home, which had been devastated, to regain his lost fortune and to spend the remainder of his days in the lovely quiet country home.

His activity and interest in the affairs of his country never ceased. In 1892 he was elected the Justice of Peace of his district which office he retained until death.

To be with him and to enjoy his store of knowledge was one's privilege, as he was a man of finest culture, affable and of highest intelligence. As a planter he was very successful throughout his long life and enjoyed the esteem of his countrymen. Those who knew him best recognized his real abilities. He attended college in Virginia, a law student, served in Mississippi Legislature 1854. He was capable of solving questions of law even in his old age.

12124 HAMER, JOSEPH LOUIS (son of Thomas C. and Sarah Cheairs Hamer) born 30 August 1837, (1832 by Etta Mae McKenzie) Anson County, North Carolina. He moved to Miss. with his parents and settled near Salem, Miss. where most of his life was spent and where he died 14 March 1900 and is buried. His boyhood days were spent on his father's farm and his education obtained from the Salem Schools and University of Miss., Oxford. Married first on 6 November 1853, to Ophelia Wilcox (daughter of Charles Gordon and Ophelia K. Wilcox), born 7 December 1834, died in Texas 1859. She received her education in Virginia.

After her death Joseph Hamer married 31 July 1861, to Eugenia Spencer born 1838, Benton County, Miss., died 4 April 1875.

After her death, Joseph Hamer married third time 26 June 1877, to Bettie Matthews born 11 August 1841, died 6 October 1913, buried Memphis, Tenn., Cy. Rose Hill.

He was a most devoted father; kind and loving husband; the pleasure of his family was his will. He was most successful as a planter and a true gentlemen in all things. Highly esteemed by all regardless of class. A character which is worthy of imitation. His views were liberal and very charitable, never was he too busy to stop and give aid to those who were in need.

"His name as truly a synonym for honor, probity, truth and loathing contempt, falsehood and everything disreputable."

His lovely home was a gathering place for his numerous friends, who were most kindly met and cordially welcomed.

Joseph Hamer went to Texas with his first wife and lived on Broxos River; here disaster came to him in the form of the death of his wife and two infants. Also, the crops were destroyed by an early freeze. He left his only surviving child, Ophelia Gordon an infant, with her Wilcox grandparents and he returned to Mississippi where he remained until his death.

She was educated Floral College, N. C., and Columbia College, S. C., received her A.B. degree class of 1876. A member of Frances Willard Society, Columbia College, Methodist and very active in the church work. S. S. teacher and president of the Missionary Society. Peter L. was educated Tatum Schools, and the Medical College of Charleston, S. C., class 1875. He was a very much loved and trusted Physician, very sympathetic toward his patients, responding always to calls when and where made. In his community he was considered a safe counselor, friend and physician. When not engaged in his medical profession of relieving the sick, one would find him in his church pew where he loved to be when the doors were open. He freely gave of his means and of himself to the church causes. On the 22nd he became ill when attending a patient; he became so ill that he returned home to his wife, where medical aid was summoned and all that was humanly possible was done to relieve and save him, but he fell into his last sleep the next day. The whole community mourned his passing. He was a Mason.

121772 HAMER, PETER NELSON born 3 December 1881, Clio, S. C., died 12 February 1902 of pneumonia in Columbia, S. C., a few months before graduating from the University of South Carolina (then South Carolina College), buried Hebron Cemetery. He joined the Methodist church in 1892. He attended schools in his native town until about 16 years of age, then he entered Cokesbury and entered the conference school at that place. He entered the S. C. College January of 1899 and would have graduated with the class of 1902. His last paper on Ethics had appended to it the following: "This paper was the last College work done by the gifted and noble young man who wrote it. On the 12th of February 1902, at 1 o'clock he was called from College life on Earth to the University of Heaven." signed Prof. J. M. Flinn, Chaplain S. C. College. This paper bore the mark of 99. Because of his diligent study and meritorious record he was awarded the Hampton Scholarship in his Junior year. He was elected to the Editor and Chief of the Annual "Garnet and Black," the highest honor the college could bestow upon him. He was the leading man in his literary Society, Clariosophic. He was president of the Junior Class. At four o'clock in the afternoon, the entire student body met at the chapel and most of the Professors, with J. M. Flinn, Chaplain in charge of a memorial service. The college had no exercises the day his body left Columbia and President Woodward stated, "That he hoped every student would be at the Infirmary in time to escort the body to the depot." In the Senior Class resolutions: "Our class and college have lost a faithful member, one who exemplified the highest principles of integrity, Christianity and friendship." The above is excerpts from the Columbia State—February 1902.

HAMER, PHILIP BASCOM	(Gertrude Buck)	12185	8
HAMER, LOULA MAY	(J. L. Townsend)	1218d	9

1218 HAMER, PHILIP MAY (son of John Hicks and Elizabeth Thomas Hamer) born 22 or 23 August 1822, Marlboro County, S. C., died 11 May 1887, buried Old Hamer Cemetery, married 28 January 1846, to Catherine Thomas (daughter of Joseph Pledger and Sarah Ann Pearce Thomas, a granddaughter of Silas and Betsy Sparks Pearce). (See Thomas data) (H.O.C., p 622), born 16 May 1824, died 27 August 1893. Philip Hamer was a Confederate Soldier, Company F. 21st Regiment, S. C. Volunteers. He was first sergeant. (Hist. Marlboro County by Thomas—p 212).

"Nobody can take it amiss if the pen of a comrade should single out one from this worthy group of fifteen, and give to him special mention. It may be because of a closer intimacy and better knowledge of his worth, that the writer puts him down as among the best of men. We slept under the same blanket upon the naked earth, trod step by step the same tented field, knelt side by side at the same camp fire, and ate from the same dish. Under all the trying circumstances of life in camp, we found Philip Hamer the same noble man, the same true friend, and the tribute here left to his memory is prompted by the affectionate remembrance of true worth. It was with sincere pleasure that we all, as a forlorn hope cast our ballots for P. M. Hamer for the House of Representatives in 1876. He filled his place in the memorable Wallace House. He returned and filled other positions in the gift of his people, and when in 1887 they laid his body to rest beside his kindred dust, Marlboro buried one of her noblest sons." (Hist. Marlboro County, by Thomas).

Records tell us that Philip May Hamer was one of Marlboro's noblest. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him, and was one of the chief Lieutenants during the tense and strenuous days of 1876. He represented Marlboro in the House of Representatives for two terms; 1876-1880. In 1883, was a member of the Board of County Commissioners which let the contract for the erection of the present Court House in Bennettsville. He was well educated and wrote a lovely hand. Many of his letters are in possession of W. L. Hamer in West Point, Ga. They being written to W. L.'s grandmother after her husband was killed in the war.

He lost several children who are not listed, but are in his Ledger Record.

1219 HAMER, LEWIS MYERS born 27 February 1825, Marlboro County, S. C., died April 1902, buried Hebron Cemetery, Hebron Church, S. C., married 7 October 1847, to Elizabeth M. Thomas (his first cousin), born 26 March 1828, died 31 January 1919, buried Hebron Cemetery, (daughter of Rachel McDaniel and Philip Thomas, he was the 7th child of Nathan and Nancy Bingham Thomas—see Thomas section—also S.K.M. by McColl, p 31).

Lewis M. Hamer had the advantages of the schools of his day, after the death of his father (1842) he spent much of his time going to school, teaching school and reading of law. It was 1846 he was admitted to the S. C. Bar. In 1849 he united with the Methodist church and soon felt a call to the ministry. He was admitted to the S. C. Conference in 1853, where for thirty-one years he served as a very successful itinerant preacher. Due to failing health, he was placed on the superannuated list in 1882, here he was not idle, but always interested in the moral and spiritual uplift of his community. He baptized the children, performed marriages and sent the couple away with a Christian blessing. Where the death angel visited he put away their loved one and offered the consolation of God's word and shared with the bereaved their sorrow. He had a quiet gentle manner and a sympathetic nature, which drew others to him, always leaving with a blessing. He was noted for his kindness and consideration of others. He left an unmarred name and a wave of good influence which will move and spread on and on.

It was in 1893, after visiting the graves of some of his children in Sumter County, finding them in such perfect condition, he made inquiry and learned of the Cemetery Association. On his return home he called together people of the Hebron Section and the Hebron Cemetery Association was formed. He drafted the Constitution and the By-Laws. This organization is in force today (1949) and is carried on by his descendants. To us he has left a challenge. Many tributes have been paid to him by those who knew and loved him.
